went forward”*

Thus states Julia Michael Johnston in her book

“MARY BAKER EDDY: HER MISSION AND TRIUMPH”

She is of course referring to Mrs. Eddy's sacred enterprise—the discovery and founding of Christian Science.

Here is a volume that you will find brings inspiration and renewed desire for true progress. For it is an account of patience, persistence, and sacrifice—of great goals achieved in the face of apparently insuperable obstacles.

You may buy it at any Christian Science Reading Room—or directly from the publisher, The Christian Science Publishing Society, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts, U. S. A.

FROM THE TREASURER OF THE MOTHER CHURCH

PER CAPITA TAX, as provided in the Church Manual, Article VIII, Section 13, is due annually from "every member of The Mother Church," and "shall be forwarded each year to the Church Treasurer." Payments may be sent during the year at any time between January 1 and December 31. Special printed forms are mailed annually to all members for their convenience in making payments. Please inform the Treasurer of any change in your permanent address.

CONTRIBUTIONS are accepted by the Treasurer for the following funds:

- Promotion and Extension Fund
- Television and Radio Fund
- General Fund
- Relief Fund (For General Relief Purposes)
- The Mother Church Fund for Armed Services Activities and Postwar Emergencies
- Charitable Institutions Fund
- (The Christian Science Pleasant View Home
- Christian Science Benevolent Association,
- Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts
- Christian Science Benevolent Association on Pacific Coast)

Contributions for these funds from members and friends may be sent direct to the Treasurer or given through Churches of Christ, Scientist, and Christian Science Societies.

Receipts are sent only when requested at the time of remitting.

Please make all remittances payable to ROY GARRETT WATSON, TREASURER, and address them to him at 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts, U. S. A.

FROM CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TRUSTEES FOR GIFTS AND ENDOWMENTS

Members of The Mother Church desiring information in regard to the establishing of a trust fund should address their letters of inquiry to ROY GARRETT WATSON, Trustee and Treasurer of the Christian Science Trustees for Gifts and Endowments, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

FROM TRUSTEES OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATIONS

Requests for information regarding applications for admission at the Sanatoriums should be addressed: For CHESTNUT HILL: CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, 910 Boylston Street, CHESTNUT HILL 67, Massachusetts. FROM THE EDITORS

ARTICLES AND POEMS

Religious articles and poems for the Journal, Sentinel, and Heralds, and religious articles for the Monitor are welcomed. Contributions are accepted only from members of The Mother Church and should be addressed to The Christian Science Publishing Society, Journal, Sentinel, and Herald Editorial Department, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

Articles should contain about 500 to 2000 words; those for the Monitor from 750 to 850 words. Freshness, originality, naturalness, variety, are prized. At least one quotation from the Bible and also one from our Leader's writings should be included in all articles. Leaflets containing helps for contributors are obtainable on request.

TESTIMONIES

Convincing testimonies of healing in Christian Science are welcomed for publication. If possible, they should be typed, triple spaced, on one side of the paper only and with wide margins. A testimony should be concise and include only the important points necessary to tell of the healing. Thus more testimonies can be published. Testimonies should be verified by three members of The Mother Church who either have witnessed the healing or can vouch for the integrity of the testifier. If the testifier is unacquainted with three members, his affidavit may be sufficient, but in this case he should, if possible, obtain verification from one or two members. The testifier should submit the verifications with the testimony. Complete addresses of the testifier and his vouchers should be furnished.

Testimonies should be addressed to The Christian Science Publishing Society, Journal, Sentinel, and Herald Editorial Department, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

"THE GUIDING STAR OF BEING"

ELLEN WATT

FROM what is said to be the beginning of time, the thought of mankind has longed for direction by a power greater than itself and has sought it in the phenomena of a material sense of life. How understandable then that Christians everywhere should innately recognize in the occasion of the birth of the babe Jesus the appearing to mankind of the Christ-consciousness. This appearing was the inevitable, though as yet unrealized, end of their outward search. Notwithstanding the lack of comprehension evident in its yearly commemoration, how truly blessed it is that this event of supreme importance should continue to engage the attention and affection of a progressively enlightened Christian world.

The power of the Christ-consciousness, so fully realized by Jesus, has been perceived, proved, and presented to this age as a demonstrable Science. From the way-showing of God's omnipresence, which illumined the night in Bethlehem, has come Christian Science, discovered and established by Mary Baker Eddy, to reveal man's native radiance and perfection. The Christ, Truth, will continue to dawn on individual consciousness, because the eternal and inherent good, which is Life, must inevitably dispel mental darkness with the light of its irresistible reality. Concerning Christmas, Mrs. Eddy says in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (pp. 259, 260), "It represents the eternal informing Soul recognized only in harmony, in the beauty and bounty of Life everlasting,—in the truth that is Life, the Life that heals and saves mankind."

The recognition by Jesus of the imperishable harmony and unerring guidance of Spirit inspired Peter to say (II Pet. 1:19), "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts." The light of Truth, this daystar which Peter progressively perceived in the works of Jesus and which illumined his own thinking in the measure that he discerned the innate nature of its presence, was the radiance of "the eternal informing Soul."

In seeking direction toward gaining that which seems individually to be desirable and useful, mortal thought ranges from human advice to fortunetelling, astrology, and the supernatural. Mrs. Eddy points out the source of true guidance in these words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 84): "The ancient prophets gained their foresight from a spiritual, incorporeal standpoint, not by foreshadowing evil and mistaking fact for fiction,—predicting the future from a groundwork of corporeality and human belief. When sufficiently advanced in Science to be in harmony with the truth of being, men become seers and prophets involuntarily, controlled not by demons, spirits, or demigods, but by the one Spirit. It is the prerogative of the ever-present, divine Mind, and of thought which is in rapport with this Mind, to know the past, the present, and the future."

Because God is Mind and God is absolutely All, man exists as the unerring, ever-unfolding spiritual evidence of this one and only Mind. He is eternally inseparable from Mind's all-inspiring, all-informing intelligence. Therefore there is not one iota of reality in any thought that does not express the perfect consciousness, which is God. Furthermore, there is no question that reality alone is enduring. The so-called minds or mentalities which seem unaware of what constitutes true knowing and existence will give place to the presence of divine intelligence in the measure that Christian Science leads mankind to obey Paul's counsel (Phil. 2:5), "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Only as this Mind constitutes our consciousness do we wholly commemorate the earthly advent of the Way-shower. The angel anthem of "glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men" (Luke 2:14), exemplified in Christ Jesus' ministry, will be achieved in the experience of mankind only as the Mind which was in Jesus is the source of all the thoughts of those who have some understanding of divine Spirit.

The spirit of Christmas is the spirit of Love, which heals afflicted sufferers, dispels sin without criticism, and proves the un-reality of the whole gamut of material laws and which lets this measureless release to mankind appear through uncondemning, Christlike thought. The spirit of Christmas springs not from a partial, personal love or from a material standpoint of thinking. It derives from the ineffably liberating power of pure, spiritual perception, which knows unfailingly the words to say and the deeds to do that enlighten, comfort, and liberate. True Christmas spirit exists in the willingness to entertain an abiding sense of the all-inclusive nature of being, in the light of which matter and mortality are seen to be illusion, and our consciousness is illumined with the spiritual intuition which is born of the presence of Mind.

The sixth chapter of the Gospel of Luke states that when the scribes and Pharisees were wondering whether Jesus would heal on the Sabbath day and thus give them a cause for accusation, he "knew their thoughts." Nevertheless, he said to the man with a withered hand, "Rise up, and stand forth in the midst." And Jesus healed him. The ability correctly to discern the thoughts and needs of our fellow men is vital to healing. The capacity of thought to perceive what should be known in the experience of individuals and nations determines in profound measure the welfare of the world. Therefore, we should indulge in no hindering criticism of unenlightened thought which seeks satisfaction and direction from some external source, since even a slight degree of condemnation can only prolong for mankind this mistaken search.

As guidance is recognized by the Christian Scientist to be the natural unfoldment of his own appreciation of true being, he sees that a false sense of anyone or anything denotes that he is not demonstrating the divine Mind as his consciousness. For although Mind knows nothing of what appears to be a material universe, its perfect presence unfolds its own unerring intelligence as intuitive and guiding thoughts concerning even the belief and dream of mortality.

Unmistakably and clearly the Christ-consciousness has revealed throughout the ages, to those who would see, the subjective nature of God's direction. Moses prayed for guidance in leading the children of Israel, and it is recorded that the Lord said (Ex. 33:14), "My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." The childlike willingness and unselfed simplicity of Moses' thought partook of the divine nature, which gave him the direction and confidence so greatly needed. Even so "the eternal informing Soul" guides us today when thought is open to its illumining presence.

Mrs. Eddy's poem entitled "Feed My Sheep" (Poems, p. 14) sums up the great work we must do by seeking through consecration guidance that is always dependable and true, ever impartial and patient, devoted to its watch. To the Christ-consciousness, appearing and abiding with us in all its releasing purity, we may look for every guiding and sustaining thought.

The watchful and consecrated devotion of Mrs. Eddy to what she discerned of true existence was evidenced in her discovery of the Science of Life, as practiced by Jesus, and in the establishment of the Christian Science movement. The world-wide scope and accomplishment of the Church she founded is the progressively unfolding proof of her divinely directed thought. The abiding sense of what she spiritually perceived constituted the guidance which led her unswervingly through the darkness, not only of her own inexperience and lack, but of the general thought of mankind as well.

In the opening paragraph of Science and Health the Way-shower is proclaimed (Pref., p. vii): "The wakeful shepherd beholds the first faint morning beams, ere cometh the full radiance of a risen day. So shone the pale star to the prophet-shepherds; yet it traversed the night, and came where, in cradled obscurity, lay the Bethlehem babe, the human herald of Christ, Truth, who would make plain to benighted understanding the way of salvation through Christ Jesus, till across a night of error should dawn the morning beams and shine the guiding star of being."

"THE SUPREMACY OF SPIRIT"

PAT PHILIP ADKINS

THE supremacy of Spirit was the foundation on which Jesus built." So writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 138). This spiritual foundation was responsible for the Master's remarkable demonstrations, for it enabled him to perceive the spiritual ideas which constitute the curative elements of true Mind-healing. The spiritual ideas so successfully utilized by Jesus are still available today, and they become apparent to us as we too build on the right foundation, "the supremacy of Spirit."

Human thought has been falsely educated to accept matter as a criterion for all logic. The Science of Christianity, however, teaches us to reverse material tendencies of thought and build on the spiritual supremacy of God's allness. Spirit must replace matter as the basis of reasoning if a practical Christianity is to be demonstrated.

Trying to modify the strict demands of this requirement by the consolidation of both material and spiritual viewpoints has caused much of mankind's religious confusion. Spirit and matter are direct opposites. Therefore they can no more be reconciled than fire and water. No one can think from opposite standpoints at the same time. Christ Jesus said (Matt. 6:24): "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

The flimsiest straw may represent salvation to a drowning man. But he can never grasp a real life preserver until he releases the straw. Mankind's effort to find security in matter is much like the struggle of a drowning man. Christian Science urges one to forsake the strawlike beliefs of matter for the life-preserving ideas of Spirit. God, Spirit, is the only substance. Matter, therefore, is but a substanceless illusion of Spirit's absence.

Let us look to Spirit for our security. To seek security in matter would simply be grasping at straws. Of course this does not mean that human necessities are to be neglected or that even a large bank account is objectionable. But it does mean that a spiritual sense of substance is necessary for lasting security.

Discerning one individual's need for a more spiritualized sense of substance, Christ Jesus said (Luke 18:22), "Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven." Whereupon, the narrative continues, the inquirer became sorrowful, "for he was very rich." The sorrow of the rich man, however, was needless. Surely the great Master was no advocate of financial poverty. But he was an advocate of spiritual riches.

Sooner or later Christ, Truth, compels everyone to lay his earthly sense of substance on the altar of Spirit. But this is cause for rejoicing, not despair, for as we begin to build on the supremacy of Spirit, human needs are met more quickly and abundantly. This fact was proved in the following experience of a man who from early boyhood had limited his occupational desire to one vocation. Any advice of his parents or teachers to temper this desire, even in the least, was quickly rejected. Little or no effort was made on his part to obtain or retain any knowledge except that which pertained to his one main interest. As he grew to young manhood, his boyhood dream was realized, and he began to make his living in the profession of his choice.

Short periods of employment and frequent layoffs were part of the occupational characteristics peculiar to his profession. But they did not disturb him. He continued working in the same line for several years. Finally, a series of seemingly insurmountable problems, including those of a financial nature, led him into the study of Christian Science.

During a period of unemployment the man began to study this Science and devoted several hours each day to considering the spiritual truths it presented. These truths challenged his thought, and he felt that here at last was something else worthy of his interest and effort. Gradually the things of Spirit began to interest him more than those of matter. He was finding something vital in Christian Science. He was grateful for the employment obtained shortly after his entrance into Christian Science, but even his beloved profession seemed incidental to the issues of life as he now saw it.

As the young man continued to study, it became apparent that the environment his type of work carried him into was out of character with the divine Principle he was learning to love. So he found additional employment in a field entirely foreign to him in the hope that he might eventually shake off his old environment. His new work paid on a commission basis, and the pay at first was small, but he continued to carry on both jobs and to study Christian Science in what other waking hours he had. Then slowly but surely he began to depend less and less on his old vocation. Eventually he was able to break completely away from his previous environment and to become a partner in a business. Moreover, his income was beyond anything he could have realized in his former profession.

The most important thing about this experience, however, was not this student's new station in life, but his growing conviction that Spirit is supreme. In fact, this conviction was responsible for his freedom. Mrs. Eddy says (Science and Health, p. 491), "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator."

God is Spirit and is All, all presence and power. Man is Godlike. He reflects the freedom of Spirit, not the slavery of matter. God is All-Life, and therefore man's life is imperishable and unrestrictable. Are we building our thought on the absolute supremacy of such spiritual ideas as these? If so, St. Paul's statement is applicable to us (Eph. 2:19, 20): "Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone."

"The supremacy of Spirit" is the foundation of all true building.

COMPANIONSHIP IS CONSTANT, ETERNAL, DIVINE

CORA L. SLAUGHTER

CAN we ever be outside the presence of infinite Love, the very source and substance of our being? Certainly not. To be cut off or shut out from Life in all its completeness, permanency, and beauty is impossible when we comprehend that God is man's Life. The relationship of man to infinite good is inviolate, maintained by omnipotent Principle.

The primary error to be handled in any belief of grief, lack of companionship, loneliness, is the lie that man can be separated from God, the fount of his activity, joy, relationships, love, and enjoyment. Because we are in truth the children of God, we can never be away from or immune to the tender warmth of limitless divine Love, our Father-Mother.

In this very moment God needs every one of us as His sons to express Him—to express Life, Truth, Love, Principle, Mind, Spirit, Soul, and all the divine attributes, such as joy, integrity, affluence, tenderness, graciousness. Thus our eternal place in the divine unfoldment is perpetually assured. Our companionship is inevitable, for we reflect forever Mind's infinite completeness and full effulgence.

Our real existence is richly rooted in and stems bountifully from divine Principle, our ever-present, never-absent Giver of all good. There can be no severance of the holy relationship of man to all good, as Mary Baker Eddy's statement in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" clearly brings out (p. 306): "If God, who is Life, were parted for a moment from His reflection, man, during that moment there would be no divinity reflected. The Ego would be unexpressed, and the Father would be childless,—no Father." Is it not absurd to suppose that Life, omnipresent Life, God, can become lifeless, that Love can become loveless, or Mind become mindless? Our heavenly Father cannot become childless, nor can we, His spiritual ideas, become Fatherless, for we are cared for by infinite, divine good, the Principle of man and the universe. We cannot lose Him, the maintainer of our health, our work, our happiness, for it is in Him that "we live, and move, and have our being" (Acts 17:28).

The Bible declares (Hebr. 12:22), "Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels." Here we have the assurance that we can always be conscious of our rightful residence in this holy city, regardless of where material sense may seek to place one. Irrespective of what the human circumstance may seem to be, we can continually dwell in the "innumerable company of angels." Throughout eternity God is our Father, and we are the authorized heirs of joy, wholeness, completeness, and divine satisfaction.

Divine completeness is the very basis and essence of individual true being. One can never be apart from that which constitutes the elements of one's own being. Divinity is whole, and division is unknown to it. For example, a student of Christian Science, after witnessing the departure of two members of her family in a flight that was to carry them to the other side of the globe, was suddenly seized with a sense of great loneliness. By nightfall she seemed to be overwhelmed with grief. However, in the midst of her tears she suddenly realized that the disturbance was caused by the aggressive suggestion that she had become separated from good, that she was cut off from affection and companionship.

She decided right then and there to repudiate and reject this lie about her relationship to God and to insist as vehemently on her freedom as if she had been presented with the suggestion of a physical difficulty. Soon she saw quite clearly that what appeared to be time and distance could not come between her and whatever she needed for a sense of happiness and well-being. Entertaining these angel messages of comfort and good cheer, she was soon sleeping peacefully and soundly, awakening the next morning with joyful expectancy.

That day and those following were filled with unexpected evidences of good, each experience supplying her individual need. The precious sense of unity at a service in a Church of Christ, Scientist, an invitation to dinner with a friend, a helpful and inspiring interchange of ideas with another, an unexpected attendance at a lovely entertainment, an opportunity to serve her branch church, made the days pass swiftly until her family's return. Particular gratitude was felt for the Christian Science Reading Room, where fruitful study revealed the permanency of companionship, home, family, and supply. Welcome visitors indeed were the Christian Science periodicals, bringing a host of new friends who shared with her their enlightenment, joy, and inspiration. She never again felt bereft of love, fellowship, or mutual enrichment; she felt only gratitude for the permanency of the healing and for the spiritual conviction that man can never be solitary, because he abides forever at one with all good.

Sorrow may be termed the sackcloth of unbelief. It dishonors God, for it breaks the First Commandment (Ex. 20:3), "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," no other Life before the one Life, no other Love before the one Love. Any suggestion of the absence of infinite, all-encompassing Love is without an element of truth and has no basis in fact. Man's divine Principle is divine Love, supplying all good everywhere at all times to everyone.

The understanding of Life as Principle leads to a fuller sense of Life as Love and brings the conviction that one can no more live without Love than he can live without Life or exist without Mind. One learns that he need not tread a lonely path through life, for he can walk companioned with Life. The faithfulness of thought to the recognition that man is the expression of divine Love unfolds true companionship.

The endeavor to be Christlike, to see others as God knows them, expressing joy, innocence, co-operation, appreciation, and loving-kindness, unites all men, and brings about right relationships. "Adhesion, cohesion, and attraction are properties of Mind," declares Mrs. Eddy in Science and Health (p. 124). Thus we see that material beliefs in any form have no power to separate, hold together, or attract good. Spirit attracts; Life controls adhesion; and Love holds all of its ideas together.

Without a real and practical understanding of God, men must invariably feel themselves to be lonely, their position summarized by Paul as "aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world" (Eph. 2:12). With "God in the world" we experience love and friendship.

Perfect divine Love heals loneliness, even as a beloved hymn from the Christian Science Hymnal tells us (No. 134):

I look to Thee in every need,
And never look in vain;
I feel Thy touch, eternal Love,
And all is well again:

Thy presence fills my solitude;
Thy providence turns all to good.

PRESSING TO THE ORIGINAL

KATHRYN PAULSON

IN determining the validity of a treasury note, or bill, a bank teller is guided by his knowledge of the genuine article. In other words, he adheres to the known facts about the original for his information. The cleverness of a counterfeit does not influence his decision nor lead him to regard it as so nearly perfect as to be accounted genuine and therefore to be honored.

Daily, hourly, the world is presenting to mankind a counterfeit of man as mortal, as sinful, sick, dying. Ignorant of the complete falsity of this presentation, men are apt to cling to it, following the outlined falsity, the pattern of mortality, unaware of their divine liberty as the children of God, the Father.

Christian Science, which is based wholly upon the inspired Word of the Bible, particularly on the teachings of Christ Jesus, is educating mankind to the great spiritual truths of creation; it is revealing the original spiritual man and universe. Through this enlightening process, men are learning to distinguish between the true and false, the right and wrong, the spiritual and the material concepts of existence. The authority for such distinction is found in the first chapter of Genesis, wherein the origin and nature of man are uncompromisingly set forth in these inspired words (Gen. 1:27): "God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

Mary Baker Eddy, who discovered and founded this practical, healing religion, had a clear concept of creation as wholly spiritual. Her view of man was always through the eyes of divine inspiration. In "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" she writes (p. 129), "And how is man, seen through the lens of Spirit, enlarged, and how counterpoised his origin from dust, and how he presses to his original, never severed from Spirit!"

What is this original to which one presses? It is his actual, scientific sonship with God, as stated in Genesis; it is his immortal sovereignty as the expression of his Father, divine Love; it is the primal beauty of his being as the reflection of the creative Mind, God.

Mortal mind, which would usurp the power and prerogative of the one divine Mind, claims to have created a material man and universe. This it appears to do from the dust or rubbish of its own false mentality. But this claim is not to be honored, for it does not have the authority or sanction of Principle, God. It can only seem to fulfill itself through physical birth and death as long as mankind accepts its counterfeit presentation and follows its disastrous pattern.

Throughout the ages, there have been spiritually minded individuals who recognized the impossibility of any real existence apart from God to the extent that they have been able to demonstrate in varying degrees their spiritual freedom. Christ Jesus, the most spiritually minded individual who ever lived, was the most successful demonstrator of this freedom. No suggestion of disease, lack, sin, or death could sever him from his recognition of Spirit as the origin and ultimate of all existence. He attributed neither cause nor effect to matter. Whatever the circumstances confronting him, he pressed to his perfect original, steadfastly acknowledging the reality of health, holiness, and immortality where their opposites claimed to be.

This adherence resulted in the immediate healing of all forms of evil and brought to light man and the universe as the eternal manifestations of God, good. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mrs. Eddy writes (p. 286): "Physical causation was put aside from first to last by this original man, Jesus. He knew that the divine Principle, Love, creates and governs all that is real."

The Master's unfailing calmness and assurance in dealing with evil's aggressive claims, sprang from his deep, spiritual conviction that God, Life, was his true primitive and ultimate source, as evidenced in his words recorded in the Gospel of John (16:28), "I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."

The outmoded patterns of disease and sin need no longer be followed through ignorance or fear. The true pattern is that shown to all men by the Master in his Sermon on the Mount. Christian Science teaches that proportionately as men press to this original pattern for human behavior, they will duplicate the marvelous healing works of Christ Jesus.

The practical result of gaining a spiritualized concept of creation is illustrated in the experience of a young woman who had suffered a spinal injury in childhood. While attending college, she underwent a thorough physical examination and was told by the physicians that there was a bone deformity which would prevent her ever bearing a child normally. Following her marriage to a student of Christian Science, she became interested in this religion; and when she learned that she was to become a mother, she decided to rely wholly upon Christian Science.

She sought the aid of a practitioner, and through the study of the Bible and of Science and Health, as well as of Mrs. Eddy's other works, she gained an increasingly clear understanding of the spiritual nature of creation.

She steadfastly refused to consider herself as a creator or to regard man as a mortal, subject to birth, growth, or death. She held resolutely to the true idea of man as God's child, as the expression of the divine nature, the reflection of divine dominion, eternally apart from material suggestions about himself or his origin. This was the perfect original to which she pressed untiringly and which she glorified increasingly. All erroneous conditions were overcome as she constantly studied. The actual birth was completely normal and harmonious, for the young mother had already been delivered from false concepts of God's man and universe, and it was inevitable and natural that human conditions manifest this spiritual growth. This young woman has continued her study of Christian Science, relying upon it to meet every need for herself and her family.

Let us press to our divine original, with complete faithfulness, rejoicing in our God-derived ability to see and be the man that God has made, worshiping Spirit only, as all-presence, all-power, all true knowledge, and activity. In the words of a loved hymn (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 144):

For God, immortal Principle,
Is with us everywhere;
He holds us perfect in His love,
And we His image bear.

EXULTING IN GOD'S PRESENCE

DOUGLAS ROBERTS

EXULTATION surely has a place in Christian Science. According to one definition, "exult" means "to rejoice in triumph; to glory, as in victory." How natural, then, that a student of this Science should rejoice in victory, that he should glory in God's presence, for he finds that Christian Science enables him to triumph over sin and disease, sorrow and lack.

Throughout her writings Mary Baker Eddy sounds a joyous note of triumph, never a cry of defeat. A paragraph from her Communion message of June 4, 1899, reads (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 129): "The divine law gives to man health and life everlasting—gives a soul to Soul, a present harmony wherein the good man's heart takes hold on heaven, and whose feet can never be moved. These are His green pastures beside still waters, where faith mounts upward, expatiates, strengthens, and exults."

A student of Christian Science soon learns that God is not a faraway person who sits in judgment on mankind. The Christian Scientist finds God to be divine Love, which heals, comforts, and regenerates. He finds Him to be ever-present supreme Mind, expressing perfect, spiritual beauty, health, holiness, joy, and completeness. How inevitable, then, that the student who apprehends such a God should desire to obey and adore Him with all his heart and to exult in His presence. This spiritually enlightened attitude frees humanity from the temptation to revel in evil or in mere sensuous beauty and enjoyment.

Contrasting the right and wrong sense of exultation—the one based on spiritual understanding, the other on materialism—Mrs. Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 7): "Physical sensation, not Soul, produces material ecstasy and emotion. If spiritual sense always guided men, there would grow out of ecstatic moments a higher experience and a better life with more devout self-abnegation and purity. A self-satisfied ventilation of fervent sentiments never makes a Christian."

How wonderful to realize that God, Spirit, is truly infinite and that here and now there is nothing but good; that this good is divinely beautiful, harmonious, substantial, and unchanging. How comforting to know that being infinite, God is complete; that man and the universe are perfect in the oneness of Mind; and that man, dwelling in God, cannot know disease or sin, fear or lack, sorrow, age, separation, or anything that God does not know. Then how right and logical it is for us to exult in a conscious sense of unity with God and with His universe of ideas. This recognition brings a deep sense of harmony and rest.

To the younger son in Jesus' parable of the prodigal son nothing seemed to promise such great joy and satisfaction as the unrestricted indulgence of animality. We read that he "took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living" (Luke 15:13). Not until he had "spent all" did the illusion of material sense begin to fade. We are told that "there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want." Then "he came to himself."

Suffering had broken through the sense-dream, and the prodigal awoke to find that earth's fables had fled. Chastened and receptive, he reached out to that recognition of the love which had been obscured through selfishness and sin. We likewise are often chastened by our false beliefs until, repentant and humble, we turn away from the "far country" of personal sense to the ever-presence of Spirit, the house, or consciousness, of Love. No matter how desperate conditions may seem, our healing has begun when we awaken to the spiritual sense of man's true selfhood. We realize that the happiness and satisfaction we sought in persons and material things were not there; that true satisfaction is found in God, Spirit, and therefore can only be spiritually discerned. Spiritual sense feels the welcoming embrace of Truth and Love and is always aware of infinite bliss.

In reality there is no mortal or prodigal son. Man is the son of God. Has man ever departed from spiritual selfhood to revel in physical sense? No. Man dwells forever complete in the parent Mind. "Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine" (Luke 15:31). If spiritual sense always guided men, they would know this to be true.

The Mind of Christ sees only true loveliness and perfection; we too shall see these proportionately as we put off the false sense of selfhood and find the real. Our Leader writes in Science and Health (p. 246), "As the physical and material, the transient sense of beauty fades, the radiance of Spirit should dawn upon the enraptured sense with bright and imperishable glories."

Here a busy person might ask, "How can I, during a day of constant work, find time or opportunity to feel 'the radiance of Spirit,' or to exult in its presence?" Many busy people, putting God first in their lives, start the day early enough to give time to spiritual things, especially to the study of the weekly Lesson-Sermon, found in the Christian Science Quarterly. Throughout the busy day they claim their unity with God, the one and only source of intelligence and power, of health and harmony. Jesus must have done this, and he accomplished more than anyone who ever lived.

In this right sense of activity, therefore, he must have been the busiest individual who ever lived. Yet what sacred opportunities he made for spiritual communion with Truth and Love! In the midst of exacting duties our Leader likewise turned constantly to God, divine Love, for guidance, refreshment, and strength, and we must do the same.

The writer recalls an experience that showed him the necessity for undivided reliance on God for healing and for a whole-hearted acceptance of God's allness and of man's unity with Him. At one-time while the writer was praying for a loved one who was in physical distress, his attempts to lift thought Spiritward were unsuccessful at first. Then he saw the cause of his failure. He realized that he was dividing his allegiance: on the one hand he was relying upon God, and on the other, he was listening to what the physical senses were telling him about his patient. Trusting his patient completely to the omnipotent care of her Father-Mother God, he was enabled to rise exultantly into a sense of God's omnipresence. He realized that God is the only consciousness, or Mind, and that in this consciousness there could be no discord. Presently the patient was quietly sleeping, and on awakening she found herself healed.

What a happifying, rejuvenating experience it is to exult in the ever-presence of spiritual beauty and omnipresent Love, in the strength and glory of divine Mind. Then one is not occupied with personalities, trivialities, and the countless non-essentials of mortal existence. While one leaves no duty undone in the daily round, he keeps the goal of perfect God and perfect man always in sight.

The Perfectness of Grace

JEAN HAZEL ALLEN

I HAD not known such beauty could be hidden
Within the shelter of a word's embrace
Until I stood beside hope's ash-gray embers
And prayed to know the perfectness of grace.
I saw a grace expressed in grassy meadows,
In rain-swept hill, in budding boughs of spring;
In native instinct of the homing swallows;
In countless feathered lyrists' caroling.

Yet, still unsatisfied, I sought the fullness
Of grace that is today's sufficiency,
And when the answer came, fraught with unfoldment,
I marveled at its pure simplicity.
It flooded waiting thought with chords celestial;
Hope found renewal at that secret tryst;
Oh, this is grace: awareness of true being—
The conscious presence of the deathless Christ.

THE BEAUTY OF SOUL

E. PEARL TRAVIS

A LITTLE girl stood gazing out over a beautiful landscape, brilliant with color. She was enchanted by the view, and turning to her mother, she exclaimed, "Aren't we grateful that God made everything in technicolor?" This incident brought to the writer's thought the deep gratitude which flooded her consciousness when she began the study of Christian Science and discovered that spiritual beauty, color, symmetry, and radiancy are essential qualities of God's creation—wholly spiritual.

The writer had been reared in the old belief that drabness and austerity were virtues and that color and gaiety were to be avoided. She had found it difficult as a child, having a deep love for the beauties of nature, to reconcile this loveliness with the severity demanded by the dictates of a mistaken sense of what constituted reverence for God.

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 247): "Beauty is a thing of life, which dwells forever in the eternal Mind and reflects the charms of His goodness in expression, form, outline, and color. It is Love which paints the petal with myriad hues, glances in the warm sunbeam, arches the cloud with the bow of beauty, blazons the night with starry gems, and covers earth with loveliness."

The purpose of demonstration in Christian Science is to establish the spiritual fact where the material concept seems to be. In place of sickness, the soundness and wholeness of man's perfect being as the pure image of Mind are proved. In place of lack the abundance belonging to God's child as the very expression of His affluence is manifested. Are we as resolute in claiming our heritage of spiritual beauty "in expression, form, outline, and color"? Establishing this beauty is just as essential to our demonstration of the perfect manifestation of Mind as is establishing health and harmonious relationships.

As the belief of dualism—the appearance of good and evil dwelling together—yields to the conscious awareness of man's radiant being as the reflection of Soul, the drabness and weariness resulting from the belief of life in matter fade away. The bleakness of fear melts into the warmth of the spiritual understanding of Love's ever-presence. The ugliness of criticism is erased by the beauty of gentleness and humility. Our expression will include the charm and loveliness of unselfed good.

In our utilization of mathematical law, exactness appears as the natural result of this application. Indeed, unless exactness is appearing we have only demonstrated a woeful ignorance of the science of mathematics. Likewise in the consciousness of our perfect being, which is the natural sequence of the earnest study and application of the truths of Christian Science, it is essential that beauty appear. Unless beauty is appearing and gladdening this experience, we have neglected to demonstrate the complete expression of the loveliness of Love and the artistry of Soul. The Psalmist sang (Ps. 50:2), "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined."

The passage of what mortal mind designates as time has no power to deface man and cannot mar his Soul-endowed beauty, diminish his activity, or dull his joy of living. On the contrary, "man, governed by immortal Mind, is always beautiful and grand. Each succeeding year unfolds wisdom, beauty, and holiness," our Leader assures us on page 246 of Science and Health.

The awakening to the realization that beauty, a quality of God, is included in the complete expression of what constitutes man operates in human consciousness as a law of regeneration and healing. This law destroys false beliefs of deformity, disfigurement, or unsightliness of any kind. More of beauty and harmony will be evidenced in the home, schoolroom, office, and in our churches when eternal beauty is understood.

This understanding will lead to improvement in the individual's dress, deportment, and bearing.

Christ Jesus lovingly commanded us thus (Matt. 5:16): "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." May the lives of Christian Scientists so glow with the radiancy of spiritual understanding that they will serve as beacons lighting the way of escape for the weary and hopeless, struggling in the belief that existence is material.

Let us claim our divine right to beauty in every phase of our experience. This loveliness is never expressed in ostentation or flamboyancy. It is the evidence of the exquisite beauty of Soul. It is hinted in nature from the fragile loveliness of the butterfly to the snow-capped majesty of the mountain's highest peak. It is represented in the gaiety and guilelessness of a little child, in the loving hand stretched forth to help a brother over a steep ascent in the journey from sense to Soul.

In her book "Miscellaneous Writings" our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, says (p. 87): "To take all earth's beauty into one gulp of vacuity and label beauty nothing, is ignorantly to caricature God's creation, which is unjust to human sense and to the divine realism. In our immature sense of spiritual things, let us say of the beauties of the sensuous universe: 'I love your promise; and shall know, some time, the spiritual reality and substance of form, light, and color, of what I now through you discern dimly; and knowing this, I shall be satisfied. Matter is a frail conception of mortal mind; and mortal mind is a poorer representative of the beauty, grandeur, and glory of the immortal Mind.'"

"AWAKEN TO VIGOR AND TO VICTORY"

CHARLES PORTER LOWES

"TRUTH is always the victor." These thought-provoking words appear on page 380 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. The sentence states a great spiritual fact, for Truth as understood in Christian Science is a synonym for God, and God is All. There is no other power to oppose infinite Truth or to contend with it. The First Commandment (Ex. 20:3), "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," sets forth the fundamental law of God. Victory over every form of evil is won through obedience to this all-powerful deific command.

After a rather prolonged physical problem, the author searched his thought to find what might be causing this delayed healing. In studying one of Mrs. Eddy's other works entitled "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany," he was spiritually awakened and completely healed as he read (p. 204), "My faith in God and in His followers rests in the fact that He is infinite good, and that He gives His followers opportunity to use their hidden virtues, to put into practice the power which lies concealed in the calm and which storms awaken to vigor and to victory."

The thought of spiritual vigor as a quality of God inspired the writer to greater effort and persistence in his mental work, which apparently had become rather a routine repetition of sacred passages from the Bible and Mrs. Eddy's works. This new impetus brought immediate results, for it released the recuperative energies of divine Mind, which are always present to heal and regenerate. The dormant understanding must be aroused in order to break the mesmeric illusion of the carnal mind. The habit of complacently listening to latent suggestions of evil is brought forcibly to our attention when we read (Prov. 6:9), "How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?"

When a problem presents itself, error would like nothing better than to darken thought, if possible, with self-pity, apathy, or a hopeless attitude. No matter how long the evil has claimed to be present, it is unknown to our Father-Mother God or to our true identity.

A vigorous new start will rouse thought to the realization of Mind's power to heal, and Truth will lift consciousness above the darkness of error into the light of spiritual reality. Since God does the healing work, we can be freed from any false personal sense of responsibility or burden and can prove that Mind is ever declaring itself. Thought must be held firmly to the ideal of Truth in order to conquer error.

If we are spiritually alert, consentaneous mass arguments cannot influence us or lull us to sleep in their attempt to control thinking. An exposé of error's hidden methods and evidence of the great need of being on guard against this imposition may be found on page 155 of Science and Health, where we read: "The universal belief in physics weighs against the high and mighty truths of Christian metaphysics. This erroneous general belief, which sustains medicine and produces all medical results, works against Christian Science; and the percentage of power on the side of this Science must mightily outweigh the power of popular belief in order to heal a single case of disease. The human mind acts more powerfully to offset the discords of matter and the ills of flesh, in proportion as it puts less weight into the material or fleshly scale and more weight into the spiritual scale."

In the Biblical account of David's victory over Goliath it is enlightening to note that in that grave emergency David was not afraid. Confronted with the challenge to divine power, he recalled other victories which he had won, knowing that the same God which saved him on those other occasions would sustain him again.

David's consciousness was free from doubt, indifference, or discouragement, for he faced the problem with confidence and absolute assurance of his God-given victory over evil. He did not meet error on its terms, with material means, nor did he compromise with error or hesitate to face it. He was most vigorous in his attack on the enemy and readily overcame Goliath.

In his mission among mankind, Christ

Jesus instantly healed sin, leprosy, insanity, and deformity and overcame lack when he fed the hungry multitude. He quickly silenced a threatening storm at sea, and with a word he restored to life those who were believed to be dead. Jesus' rebuke to mortal ignorance of the ever-present laws of divine Principle was always pointed and timely.

Business men and women are gaining a victory over their problems through an understanding of Christian Science. As the reflection of God, man receives a never-ending flow of spiritual ideas, which are the only true substance. These ideas appear to human experience as an abundance of everything that is needful for happiness and true success. One idea of God can never hinder or control another idea, for each is satisfied and already reflects all good. If we understand this fact, we shall find mutual help and co-operation instead of harmful competition.

An understanding of Truth will restore harmony and order whenever discord seems to appear. Equipped by God, we shall find that the conflict produced by the belief of minds many is rendered null and void; injustice, failure, or other inhibitions of the so-called human mind are precluded.

A realization of God's law of harmony can be applied to open the way in congested traffic when conditions seem at times to cause delays and inconveniences. There is always the right place in Mind for each of God's ideas, and we can know this whether the need is for a place to park a car or for freedom of uninterrupted movement on a highway.

The spiritual laws of adhesion, cohesion, and attraction govern all and regulate each idea in its proper sphere of action and in its relation to the other ideas of God. One idea cannot occupy the place of another, for the intelligence of each idea evidences divine Mind expressing itself. The understanding of this fact produces proper timing, efficiency, and correct movement and action in our experience.

At one time the motor coach on which a Christian Scientist was traveling suddenly stopped, and the driver tried in vain to find the trouble and proceed on the long journey. The passengers became very much disturbed at the seemingly poor prospects of arriving at their various destinations on time.

In the midst of the confusion and discomfort caused by the breakdown, this student mentally declared most vigorously some of the truths that we are taught in Christian Science. It was clearly seen that the man of God's creation is always in his right place and that he cannot be inconvenienced.

The Christian Scientist declared that there is no power capable of preventing one from performing the righteous duties that are his to accomplish. This truth was a spiritual law to make a way through the seeming impasse.

Almost immediately a car stopped beside the coach, and its driver got out and made an investigation. He was an expert mechanic, and in just a few minutes the necessary repairs were made, and the journey was resumed. Thus intelligence, a quality of God, was present to overcome delay and distress.

The vigor that we all are capable of expressing and the accompanying victory are always at hand. No falsity or error can touch the perfection of God's plan or impede His will in our work of claiming that "Truth is always the victor."

OUR TRUE IDENTITY

EMMA SIMMONS RADCLIFFE

IN answer to the question, "What are body and Soul?" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 477) Mary Baker Eddy writes in part: "Identity is the reflection of Spirit, the reflection in multifarious forms of the living Principle, Love. Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter." She also says in the paragraph following, "Man is the expression of Soul." Because man is the image and likeness of God, he is the evidence of Spirit, which is the antipode of matter. Therefore man's identity is spiritual; it is separate and apart from the mesmeric belief of mortality or a material body and is inseparable from Spirit.

Scholastic theology and false education teach that man has his origin in a material body, that he emerges into existence as an infant, and that he later acknowledges an anthropomorphic God. So-called mortal mind fosters beliefs of birth, growth, maturity, inactivity, old age, and death. But as one relinquishes his material concept of birth and recognizes man's divine origin, he becomes more conscious of his spiritual, incorporeal identity.

That which appears to material sense as a mortal body is but a false belief or misapprehension of God's idea. Christian Science reveals that mortal mind and material body are one. Since mortal mind is the counterfeit of the divine Mind, it is ignorant of divine reality. As we give up the ignorant, false belief of a mortal mind for the truth that God is the only Mind, we exchange the false belief of a mortal body for spiritual identity, or idea. This exchange results in improved bodily conditions.

The material body is nothing more than the objective state of mortal mind; whereas man's true identity is derived from Spirit, and is his conscious embodiment of such divine elements as joy and love and peace. The material senses argue that mankind's substance originates as matter and that mankind experiences a state and stage of development known as growth. But real growth is not a material process or manifestation. True growth is spiritual unfoldment and evidences the ever-presence and activity of Life, God, good. The understanding of growth as spiritual unfoldment acts as a law to annul any erroneous belief of retarded or abnormal growth.

Redeemed from the mesmerism of life in matter, we are delivered from the erroneous effects or penalty of accepting a mistaken identity. As we grow in the understanding that man's identity is spiritual and incorporeal, we evidence a fuller sense of dominion over the physical body.

The qualities and ideas of God spiritually constitute our real identity, even while the material or mortal thinking which we admit or embody claims to constitute our material body. But there is no dualism in Spirit. We can no more identify ourselves as both spiritual and material than we can have light and darkness at the same time. Just as harmony and discord cannot dwell together, so Spirit and matter cannot dwell together.

The Apostle Paul says (II Cor. 5:8), "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." We should be absent from the material sense of things and present with Spirit, ever-present Mind. The Christian Scientist, progressively gaining the realization that the physical body is a subjective state of mortal thought, is establishing the scientific fact that the unfoldment of the Christ to his individual consciousness reveals his spiritual identity.

One who is physically ill has a mistaken sense of identity; he is falsely believing that he is a mortal with a material body which is sick or diseased. Here is a case of mistaken identity. The sufferer is observing mortal mind's misconception of himself and claiming this misconception as his body.

A young man in military service was confronted with a condition known as rupture. The situation was so serious that he was ordered to report to the hospital for surgery. Being a student of Christian Science, he called upon a Christian Science practitioner for help. The practitioner, knowing that man is spiritual, not material, immediately took up the work. The student's and the practitioner's realization of the allness and oneness of God and of the patient's true identity as the individual expression of God's oneness resulted in the young man's healing, and he returned to normal activity. Later, in referring to the experience, he said: "The doctors who were ready to operate released me when they no longer had any reason to remedy a condition which God had already taken care of. I have since exercised vigorously with no ill effects of any kind."

Paul wrote (I Cor. 15:31), "I die daily." Paul might have meant that as he gained an understanding of his at-onement with God, eternal Life, his false beliefs concerning his material body passed away. Mrs. Eddy says (Science and Health, p. 200), "Life is, always has been, and ever will be independent of matter; for Life is God, and man is the idea of God, not formed materially but spiritually, and not subject to decay and dust."

"GOD'S ESSENTIAL LANGUAGE"

H. PHELPS GATES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE came to the world as a new tongue, destined to break through the limits and barriers of human language and speech. Those who daily prove its healing power do not depend upon stereotyped phrases or the mere letter of Science. In Christian Science, prayer is not rote or ritual. In this religion prayer is constant, conscious communion with God. It is continuing spiritual awareness of divine Love's presence and power. It is consecrated, unceasing thinking and living in the knowledge of the beauty and holiness of Soul.

Prayer in Christian Science is the new tongue of Spirit, the Word of God expressed. Such prayer is with power, for it is the revelation of God to mankind, the realization of the allness and perfection of God, Principle, and the ever-present harmony and completeness of the real man as God's expression.

Christ Jesus said to his disciples (Mark 16:15, 17): "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. . . . And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues."

Mary Baker Eddy's discovery of Christian Science was for all mankind. On page 117 of the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mrs. Eddy writes: "God's essential language is spoken of in the last chapter of Mark's Gospel as the new tongue, the spiritual meaning of which is attained through 'signs following.' Ear hath not heard, nor hath lip spoken, the pure language of Spirit." Mrs. Eddy wrote in English, yet she realized that mortal ears and lips are too limited fully to hear and speak the new tongue.

One can read the letter of Christian Science, fumble with its words, cogitate its simplest statements, yet without inspiration or receptivity one will be ignorant of this new tongue, dull to the healing power of God's Word. The problem of understanding God and proving His power with men is not new. Isaiah saw in his time that men could hear but not understand. Later Christ Jesus reminded his followers of the ancient prophet's words. He said (Matt. 13:13, 14): "Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive."

The tiny babe, too young to know a word of human language, responds to the language of Spirit, the silent or audible declaration of the spiritual fact that God is All, that God is perfect, and that every child of God expresses Him in infinite completeness and perfection. Healings often come quickly to very small children because their purity of thinking is attuned to the Word of God. Like healings which come to infants are those benefits of Christian Science which often come to beginners who cannot read or write English. In whatever land or tongue students of Christian Science make this discovery of Truth, they have a dependable test of the purity, godliness, and authenticity of their grasp and practical application of this religion. That test is the kind of healing work which Jesus performed, the signs following the understanding of Truth.

One's ability to demonstrate the power of Love, Spirit, Life, Truth, Soul, is above and beyond the limitations of human words. One's right to enter into God's kingdom in this present hour is not dependent upon the complex vocabularies of the world's many languages.

Anyone fully receptive to the Christianity which Jesus taught and which Mrs. Eddy restored to mankind has immediate access to God's essential language, the language of Spirit. By healing work, the student of this Science proves the power of God's Word. One needs no learned vocabulary to commune with God, to dwell in infinite Spirit. In Science, man, God's man, is forever in communion with God, forever under God's constant and unceasing care and protection.

Here is the experience of a young woman who proved that the language of Spirit can break through the barriers of lack, poverty, and even human language. It was while living in a windowless basement room and doing the most menial kind of work as a domestic servant that this young woman first heard the words "Christian Science." They were the first words she had learned in English and were the only ones she recognized in print. One day in the village where she lived she saw a window poster on which were these words. It was the announcement of a Christian Science lecture, and she attended.

The lecture was in English. The words she heard meant nothing to her, but the spiritual atmosphere of the lecture hall, the joy expressed by those in attendance, the lecturer's frequent use of the words "Christian Science" reached her thinking. A great spiritual light dawned on her consciousness, a vision infinite, that mentally lifted her out of the cramped living conditions and drudgery. That evening she returned to her dark basement room with such a joy of thinking and living that her whole life seemed changed and redeemed. She decided that night to learn everything she could about a religion with such healing power.

Next day the young woman secured a copy of Science and Health from a nearby Reading Room. With the help of anyone who would listen to her, she began to learn words, phrases, and sentences out of the textbook. The household in which she worked was hostile to her study; so she often walked far out into the fields to pray and commune with God as she was learning to do in Christian Science.

In a very few weeks a new position opened for the young woman, and she had ample time to study. Step by step she enlarged her understanding of God as Love and of man as God's image. She learned to think more expansively and joyously. She found her prayers answered in her healing of such problems as colds, minor injuries, insect bites, and family inharmonies. Through the years, however, she realized that her greatest benefit in the study of Christian Science was her constantly expanding vision and consciousness of God, good. She found better and more profitable employment and always more opportunity to exemplify and share her understanding of Christian Science. Gradually she devoted more time to the practice of Christian Science and finally gave up all other activities to devote herself exclusively to the healing work.

As part of her expanding thought and vision this student of Christian Science recently flew across the Atlantic Ocean to address a large gathering of Christian Scientists. Here was one more opportunity, she knew, to express her great gratitude for what Christian Science had done to lift her out of the depths of limitation and lack.

The simplest parables of Jesus and the plainest words of Mrs. Eddy can be meaningless and of no avail to the uninspired reader. Yet to the spiritually minded and inspired, however innocent or unlettered in this world's knowledge, the most profound facts of being as taught in Christian Science become simple, practical, and easy to understand.

In "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" Mrs. Eddy writes (p. 238): "God being Spirit, His language and meaning are wholly spiritual. Uninspired knowledge of the translations of the Scriptures has imparted little power to practise the Word. Hence the revelation, discovery, and presentation of Christian Science—the Christ Science, or 'new tongue' of which St. Mark prophesied—became requisite in the divine order."

Immortal Music

MARY LUCRETIA BARKER FRANKLIN

THE rhythm of the spheres is manifest
In gracious balance, order, symmetry,
Sustained in perfect action, holy rest
With no inertia or inharmony.
The cadences of heaven reach the ear
Attuned to Spirit, God, the One and All,
And where eternal melodies appear
There is no earthly pull, no rise or fall.
No mad confusion or drab monotone
Prevails, no chaos wild exerts its dream—
Celestial notes bring harmony alone,
Like pearl-clear tones with Soul's majestic theme.
The Mind which ordered heaven sends its song
Through all creation, deathless, pure, and strong.

"WHITHER SHALL I FLEE?"

ERMINIE ROCK WALPOLE

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE teaches that God is omnipresent Being. In every age countless people have recognized the presence of God. The Psalmist sang (Ps. 139:7-10): "Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me."

Centuries later Christ Jesus recognized man's inseparability from God. He fully understood the import of his own words (John 10:30), "I and my Father are one." He was continually aware of his Father's unfailing presence and of his own security therein. His discernment of man's at-onement with God enabled him to exercise mastery over every suggestion of separation from God.

The Apostle Paul endeavored to persuade the people of his time that God was always with them and that nothing could alienate them from His holy presence. In his letter to the Christians in Rome, he wrote (Rom. 8:38, 39), "I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Paul was completely convinced that no conceivable circumstance, person, place, or thing could separate him, those Christians in Rome, or us from the loving presence of God.

Students of Christian Science use the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy as their textbooks, and through their study they are becoming more joyously aware of God's allness. They give prayerful heed to Mrs. Eddy's counsel (Science and Health, p. 445), "You render the divine law of healing obscure and void, when you weigh the human in the scale with the divine, or limit in any direction of thought the omnipresence and omnipotence of God." Mrs. Eddy's revelation of Christian Science teaches the great reality of omnipresent good.

It is impossible for anyone ever to stray beyond the omnipresence of Love or to be excluded from it. Nothing can separate us from God, although all problems—physical, mental, marital, or financial—are suggestions that such an impossibility can be. Every problem or claim of error is merely a suggestion that for a moment man is separated from God, that he is outside His holy presence. But these suggestions are always false, for there can be nothing beyond infinity.

The suggestion of death cannot make us doubt the eternal, changeless presence of Life. Divine Love has tenderly persuaded us that Life is God, never interrupted, never exhausted, and never terminated. Our birthright as God's reflection includes a positive, joyous understanding of eternal Life. When we understand this truth, we can never be robbed of a calm sense of changeless Life.

All of the principalities and powers referred to by Paul surrender to the omnipotence of Spirit, God. Mortal mind claims to have created a physical realm and to have empowered it with good and bad forces, but Mrs. Eddy writes in "Unity of Good" (p. 47), "Nowhere in Scripture is evil connected with good, the being of God, and with every passing hour it is losing its false claim to existence or consciousness."

Intelligent Spirit, Mind, is the sole creator of that which is real. Christian Scientists are learning not to indulge in hours of regret over the past, but to leave the past with God, as He requires. When one obediently leaves the past with Him and ceases to cling to it, he goes forward in a regenerated sense of self. Refusing to look back even a day or an hour frequently frees one from pangs of grief and regret. Many cases of insomnia have yielded to this mental discipline.

The writer knows a man who for weeks had dreaded the approach of evening, because night after night he had tossed restlessly on his bed unable to sleep. He was an earnest student of Christian Science but had not been able to stop brooding over an unwise business decision which he had made the year before. He finally turned to a Christian Science practitioner for treatment. She helped him to recognize the mistake of listening to mortal mind's claim that he was a misguided mortal, suffering mental anguish as the result of limited business experience. She asked him to ponder this precept of Christ Jesus' (Matt. 5:25): "Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison." One definition of "agree" is "to settle."

Together they reasoned that if ever again the suggestion of fear and self-condemnation assailed him, he could speak with authority to the error in somewhat this manner: "I deny this whole imposition, and I thank Almighty God that it was He who created me and is forever causing me to understand my relationship to Him. God alone is cause and creator."

The truth of this divine logic healed the man's thought concerning the past, and from that time on Truth was manifested in better business activity during the day and in refreshing rest at night. An orderly sense of proper sleeping hours was established with his improved thought.

Things past and present, as well as things to come, are in the Father's care. In whatever direction thought travels, God is there. Wherever one's thought goes, harmony and peace and wholeness are there. Life and Love are dependably and eternally at the very point of one's thinking.

Paul reminded the Christians in Rome that neither "height, nor depth" could separate them from the realm of Truth. The geometric altitudes of airplane travel and of mountain climbing are subordinate to the truth of man's being, namely that he is ever safe as idea in Mind. The heights of emotional excitement or the depths of discouragement and fear are subjugated by Truth. When we remember our inseparability from the divine presence, no "other creature," no sense of personality, can mislead us or cause us to doubt or forget the changeless love of God. The joyous recognition of Immanuel, "God with us," is the panacea for all claims of fear and grief. Whither would we flee from the all-pervading presence?

PERFECT GOD AND PERFECT MAN

HERBERT E. BONHAM

IN "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 450), "The Christian Scientist has enlisted to lessen evil, disease, and death; and he will overcome them by understanding their nothingness and the allness of God, or good."

Those who accept Christian Science as the truth have a solemn obligation to carry out the terms of their enlistment and to engage actively in the healing of sin, disease, and death. This does not necessarily mean as public practitioners of Christian Science, for no matter where a student of Christian Science is—in the home, in school, or in business—there are always opportunities to demonstrate the healing power of Christian Science. And healings do take place at the services in Christian Science churches, at church business meetings and committee meetings, and at Christian Science lectures.

How are these healings brought about? Our beloved Leader says in Science and Health (p. 259), "The Christlike understanding of scientific being and divine healing includes a perfect Principle and idea,—perfect God and perfect man,—as the basis of thought and demonstration." If the basis of thought and demonstration is the realization of perfect God and perfect man, we can readily see that the study of God is a fundamental requirement. Why? Because it is only through an understanding of God and of man's relationship to Him that Christian Science healing can be demonstrated. God is infinite Spirit, and man in His image and likeness is spiritual, perfect, and infinite in quality. As one sees himself to be the child of God, he must see that the same is true for all.

It was Jesus' understanding of the oneness, or unity, of God and man which enabled him to heal the sick and the sinner. Mrs. Eddy writes (Science and Health, pp. 476, 477): "Jesus beheld in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man healed the sick." Jesus said (John 8:32), "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Free from what? Free from the belief of a life apart from God; from bondage to sinful and diseased beliefs; from the belief of a material existence or the Adam-dream of life and intelligence in matter; and from all belief in death. Nothing but the knowledge of the truth—of perfect God and perfect man—will make men free.

Treatment is the prayer that recognizes the all-presence and all-power of perfect God and precludes the possibility of any other presence or power. Treatment should be fearless, unlabored, joyous, and spontaneous in the ever-present consciousness of perfect God and perfect man. It was not possible for an erroneous picture to find a place in Jesus' truth-filled consciousness. It was his constant readiness to obey God's guidance, his undeviating loyalty to Truth, and his faithful communion with God at all times that made him the perfect healer. He allowed neither time, place, nor circumstance to interfere with his healing work.

It is this same fidelity to the Principle of Christian Science and to the realization of the perfection of God and man that enables us today to heal those who in sincerity seek our help. There are millions who are hungry for the bread of Truth, who are watching for the Love which heals and saves, and to such we must offer a cup of cold water in the name of Christ, Truth.

Jesus said to the man who had a withered hand (Matt. 12:13), "Stretch forth thine hand." The account continues, "And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other." Jesus did not accept the physical evidence. He simply told the man to stretch forth his hand. Jesus actually saw the perfect man of God's creating—not a diseased mortal. He was evidently not interested in how long the man's hand had been withered, how the condition was brought about, which hand it was, nor was he interested in any material appearances. Jesus knew that God's work was done; that God's perfect creation and His perfect expression could never be changed by mortal sense testimony.

What appears to be a sick man is not man at all, but is a mortal dream. The real man is the perfect idea of God. He is the individual reflection of divine consciousness and therefore is conscious only of God, good. We do not declare the truth to make it true. We declare the truth because it is true. Truth expresses itself. It does not need the help of anyone or anything. The trouble rises from a belief in dualism—the belief in both a material man and a spiritual man, or in a man who is a mixture of the material and spiritual. There is just one man—spiritual man.

Jesus' mission was to demonstrate the Christ, which reveals the real man. This man is the evidence of divine perfection. How grateful we can be that man, the image and likeness of God, can never cease to express perfection. Therefore, when a mortal seems to be sinning, sick, diseased, or dying, we must know that right at that moment, the only man there really is, is expressing health and perfection. Man can never sin, be sick or diseased, nor can he ever die.

In raising Lazarus from the dead, Jesus did not plead to know whether God was willing to restore life. He said (John 11: 41, 42): "Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always." These words expressed a perfect prayer of confidence in an understood divine Principle. It was a solemn affirmation of Truth; and the false belief of death was proved powerless in the face of such sublime understanding. Prayer as taught and utilized by Jesus was the declaration and acknowledgment of Truth—the understanding of perfect God and perfect man.

The healing power of Christian Science is as potent and present today as it ever was. God always was, is, and ever will be, and man, in His image and likeness, always was, is, and ever will be. Man never ceases to reflect God's completeness. The understanding of the true man never ceases to bring about healing. As we bring to bear upon our daily experience the true understanding of God and man, with its reforming, regenerating, and spiritualizing power, we shall see the mortal concept disappearing and the clear expression of divine Mind unfolding. Our work, then, is to exchange the unworthy for the lovely, the mortal for the immortal, the limited for the infinite, and the material for the spiritual, until man, made in the image of God, is seen to be the only man there is. Man as the image and likeness of God knows no sin, sickness, sorrow, pain, nor death, because in infinite Spirit, Mind, there is no mortality. Like our Master, we must rise into the spiritual sense of being. Then instantaneous healing will be realized. We shall see clearly that there is truly nothing to heal—that there exists only perfect God and perfect man.

"RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD"

OLIVER HINSDALL

"STUDY to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Tim. 2:15). It then not only becomes the privilege, but it is the duty of a Reader in a Church of Christ, Scientist, to proclaim Truth by a right or correct reading of the Lesson-Sermons, outlined in the Christian Science Quarterly.

In order to show oneself "approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed," the newly elected Reader immediately sets about the task of mastering his tools and the discovery of a correct way to accomplish this task. He does not leave his reading to what is so often mistakenly called "inspiration." Certainly no one would presume to sit down at a piano and plunge into a composition, simple or difficult, without knowing certain fundamentals of piano playing.

The Manual of The Mother Church by Mary Baker Eddy requires that Readers shall read with understanding and be well educated (see Art. III, Sect. 6). Education is the effect of both study and inspiration. In an enlightening passage from Nehemiah are these words (8:8): "So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading." It is interesting to note that the readers first read distinctly—then they gave sense to their reading. To read distinctly means to be free from self-imposed limitations by the taking of certain human footsteps—improving pronunciation, enunciation, and the effective use of the voice. Thus by one's study the words are taken into an inspirational sense.

The Reader is primarily concerned with the spiritual quality of his reading, for he knows that Mind is the only interpreter and that there is a correct way of expressing that interpretation. Thought then unfolds and expands from within into skilled expression. Correct, authoritative expression comes as the result of clear understanding. By the same token, forceful, persuasive expression is the result of deep conviction.

When the Reader has so mastered the techniques of reading that he no longer has to think of them as he reads and simply listens for the still small voice of inspiration, the reading takes wings and goes forth to accomplish its great purpose. The Reader is concerned with conveying thought by sound through the spoken word. Effective reading, however, is achieved only when the Reader becomes more concerned with the scientifically reflected idea than with the mere reading of words.

One of the most important tools in the art of expression is joy. Thousands who have found the way in Christian Science have occasion for great gratitude, and their joy cannot be taken from them. Good reading, therefore, must evidence joyous gratitude. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" (Matt. 12:34). Throughout the Bible we are repeatedly admonished to be joyous. "Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands: sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious" (Ps. 66:1, 2). This quotation, with many additional ones in the Bible, alerts us to the importance of joyously proclaiming the Word of God. Mary Baker Eddy wrote to a Reader (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 247): "God has called you to be a fisher of men. It is not a stern but a loving look which brings forth mankind to receive your bestowal,—not so much eloquence as tender persuasion that takes away their fear, for it is Love alone that feeds them."

As the Reader thoroughly understands the meaning of true humility, his reading will evidence greater dominion and authority. In Mark (1:22) we read of those who heard Christ Jesus, "They were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority." This authority was the result of demonstration based upon the understanding of God's allness. Coupled with the knowledge that he of himself could do nothing was the understanding that through Christ he had all power. Thus Christ Jesus exemplified true humility. Let us be alert lest we substitute false humility for "impersonal" reading, thereby devitalizing the Word of God.

One Reader in a Church of Christ, Scientist, eager to bring out the healing value in the reading of the lessons, found his answer in carefully studying the seven synonyms for God found on page 587 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mrs. Eddy. Although he was aware that each of these synonyms includes all of the others, the Reader carefully considered each one and sought to express the qualities it indicated in the reading. In the Concordances to Mrs. Eddy's writings he found, for example, under Mind, intelligence, accuracy, alertness, directness. Under Life, he found spontaneity, activity, radiancy, inspiration, and joy.

As the Reader more fully came to understand and live these qualities, his reading evidenced a clearer sense of spiritual understanding or intelligence, and thus a joyous radiancy was expressed. And so on throughout his study of the other synonyms: Love he found to be redolent with gratitude, trust, and grace, and these elements gave warmth and joy to his reading. Under Truth, he discovered and expressed the omnipresence of God, the power of God, the loving-kindness and gentleness that bespeak dominion. Under Soul, he found poise, peace, harmony, color, emphasis, and selflessness. Among the qualities of Principle, he discovered orderliness, law, wisdom, and authority. And he strove to bring out each one of these qualities in his reading. With this sense of order and timelessness, his reading gained a glorious sense of the oneness, or unity, of Principle and its idea. As he strove to bring out the qualities synonymous with Spirit, he found that purity, humility, and a great sense of completeness were manifested in his reading, and the healings at the church services were many.

"Rightly dividing the word of truth," then, becomes the privilege of the Reader, much as the dividing of the loaves and fishes upon the occasion of the memorable breakfast on the shore of the Galilean sea became the privilege of Jesus and his disciples. Rightly reading the Lesson-Sermon feeds the sheep of the Father's fold, those who are reaching out for the substance of spiritual healing promised to them in the Bible.

The importance of metaphysical work done just prior to the church service is illustrated in the experience of a Reader known to the writer. One Sunday, while working prayerfully, she saw very clearly that nothing could enter to annoy or disturb any member of God's spiritual household. The following lines repeatedly came to her thought: "May the kingdom of God within you,—with you alway,—reascending, bear you outward, upward, heavenward." She felt that it was a God-directed message, for she was not aware of ever having heard the words before, but she did feel that the lesson for that Sunday would bear her and her listeners "outward, upward, heavenward." She knew her work was complete as she stepped onto the platform, calm, poised, and peaceful. Upon returning to her room, she discovered by use of the Concordance to Mrs. Eddy's writings that the quotation was from pages 10 and 11 of "Pulpit and Press."

The following Sunday at the close of the morning service, a stranger came to her and told her that he had been having a terrifying experience of frustration which had persisted over a period of two years. In the last months he had remained away from the church because he felt he could not sit through the service. On the preceding Sunday he started for the branch church of which he was a member, but upon nearing the edifice, he changed his course and attended the church of my friend instead. As he took a seat that morning, so great was the struggle which seemed to overwhelm him that he was once more tempted to leave before the service began. Suddenly he felt that he was being lifted "outward, upward, heavenward," and a wonderful sense of peace, calm, and relaxation came over him. All sense of frustration left him instantly, and he knew that he was healed. This healing proved to be permanent.

Readers and the congregation should carefully study the weekly lesson, for it is only when consciousness is prepared that the oneness and allness of God, good, always existent, can be brought to light, and healing occurs. Thus we are studying to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed.

LET US EMPLOY OUR SUPPLY

FRANCES MARSHALL

THE problem of supply and employment is one with which mankind has been faced down through the ages. Christ Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount set forth the rule in regard to this problem (Matt. 6:33): "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Mary Baker Eddy's discovery of Christian Science made this rule clearly demonstrable. Let us see just how this rule operates in the light of this teaching.

Christian Science brings the glad news to mankind that God is ever-present and all-knowing Spirit or Mind. The man made in His image and likeness must therefore be a spiritually mental idea, reflecting all the qualities which belong to God. These include such qualities as wisdom, intelligence, joy, peace, and harmony. To the consciousness unenlightened by this Science, Spirit may seem very dim, far-off, and unsubstantial. The student of Christian Science gains an ever-growing conviction that Spirit, God, is true substance, tangible and real. The truths of being annul the false claims of material sense that man is mortal and material—a part of the Adam-dream. If we do this, our consciousness is purified, spiritualized, and ready to receive God's bounty, which is always present for those willing to accept it. God's bounty includes the true idea of supply and employment.

The order of the unfoldment of supply and employment is somewhat like the order of cause and effect. Just as effect is the expression of cause, employment is the manifestation of supply. The prevailing attitude is that employment is the source of one's supply. But is this actually true? Mrs. Eddy tells us in her "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 307), "God gives you His spiritual ideas, and in turn, they give you daily supplies." Therefore we see that the source of present supply is spiritual ideas.

"But," one may ask, "how do these ideas furnish our daily needs?" A dictionary definition of the word "employ" reads in part, "to make use of." So we must employ or make use of these ideas in the spiritualization of our consciousness, as we are taught to do in Christian Science. It is thus seen that supply is not the result of employment, but employment is the natural outgrowth of the supply of spiritual ideas.

Mrs. Eddy states in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 301), "Delusion, sin, disease, and death arise from the false testimony of material sense, which, from a supposed standpoint outside the focal distance of infinite Spirit, presents an inverted image of Mind and substance with everything turned upside down." Belief in the inversion of the scientific order of supply and employment makes one subject to the many limitations of seemingly inadequate, unsuitable, or nonexistent employment. This inversion, in turn, seems to result in inadequate supply, resulting in lack, dissatisfaction, fear, and the possible loss of necessities.

The student of Christian Science finds that as he learns more of God's goodness and tender loving care for His creation, man and the universe, and as he assimilates more of the divine character, his human existence and condition change to a more harmonious, healthy, and abundant state. As the Christian Scientist strives to seek first the kingdom of God and to express God-like qualities in the human experience, the result must inevitably be improved working conditions, progress in his line of endeavor, and ample remuneration to take care of all his needs. Actually there can never be a time when God is not supplying man with right ideas and the ability to express them. Therefore, in Spirit there can never be unemployment, unsatisfactory or unsuitable occupation; neither can there be a cessation or shortage of anything real, for infinite Spirit cannot include less than all.

In Jesus' parable of the talents which a man gave to his servants (Matt. 25:14-30) we find a good example of supply and its consequent employment. First, he gave them the talents. Could that not be likened to ideas which our Father-Mother God gives to us? Then, it was their responsibility to use these talents and to increase them just as it is our responsibility to use in our daily lives the truths of God and man in His image and likeness, which we learn in Science.

In the parable, we read that upon the man's return, two of his servants had doubled their talents; they had employed them and had received twofold in return. However, because of his limited sense of substance a third servant did not use the talent given to him, but buried it in the earth. He did not employ his supply; thus it could not grow and increase. The first two servants received the blessing of their lord (verse 23), "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord." But he gave his rebuke to the third servant and took from him even the one talent.

A seemingly deep-rooted fear of dwindling supply was uncovered to a student of Christian Science. While striving to see the truth of the situation, she realized that when she was a child during the so-called depression of the 1930's, she had heard much fear expressed in the home about the loss of employment and lack of supply. Since taking up the study of Christian Science, she had made much progress in overcoming the thought of money as supply, but she saw that more work was needed to eradicate this fear from her consciousness. In praying for spiritual unfoldment, she thought, "If supply consists of right ideas and employment is expressing those ideas, supply comes first and then employment, not employment and then supply."

With this came a release from the fear of spending money; whereas previously the need to pay for even needful things seemed to cause a mental struggle with fear of decreasing supply. With this increased freedom came a joyful acknowledgment that our true supply of right ideas can never be exhausted, and only as they are used will they be increased in our experience. Of course, it is right to use wisdom in the handling of our funds, but there need not be a fear of lack if we are joyfully and intelligently employing our abundant supply of ideas given to us by divine Love.

Continuing the first passage by Mrs. Eddy quoted in this article, we read (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 307), "Never ask for to-morrow: it is enough that divine Love is an ever-present help; and if you wait, never doubting, you will have all you need every moment." Thus the practicality of seeking "first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness" is unfolded through the teachings of Christian Science. Let us gratefully accept the continuous flow of right ideas and employ them in our every walk of life. Thus we shall receive the blessing of our Father-Mother God, "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

Key of David

PEARL STRACHAN HURD

No blueprint. No road map. But light!
Flower of flame in the night
And column to guide by day,
Marking the way.

Christ risen from the tomb
Shuts off the dark room,
Forestalls defeat,
Cuts off retreat.

The old commandment, the new,
Christ offers you;
With key of Truth unseals
What saves, and heals,

Closes forevermore
The way back, shuts the door
Emerges from, opens wide
To the forward stride

Adventure beyond scope
Of yearning or of hope,
Gives freedom to express
The true success.

THE UNIVERSALITY OF CHURCH

W. A. GIBSON MARTIN

"THIS church is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts." This announcement, read by the First Reader in a branch Church of Christ, Scientist, and followed by details of the branch church services, Sunday School, and Reading Rooms, brought much helpful unfoldment to a student of Christian Science.

The Mother Church has branches throughout the world. This knowledge cast a new light for the student on the universality of the Church founded by Mary Baker Eddy on the Rock, Christ. It widened and deepened his concept of Church so that he no longer thought of himself as one of a few Christian Scientists in a small town. Rather, he saw that as a co-worker in The Mother Church he had a necessary part to play in the world-wide organization which has as its aim the healing and regeneration of mankind through spiritual prayer.

During a tour of Europe the writer visited a country which, although much larger than England, had no branch of The Mother Church. However, a small group of loyal students, several of them members of The Mother Church and one a practitioner listed in The Christian Science Journal, held Christian Science services every Sunday in a private house. These services followed exactly the Order of Services which appears on page 120 of the Manual of The Mother Church by Mrs. Eddy and were conducted with dignity and deep sincerity. As these students continue to make the Manual and Mrs. Eddy's other writings their guide to further progress in spiritual understanding, they will undoubtedly help their country to join with all those who are blessed in having large and active branches of The Mother Church.

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mrs. Eddy asks (p. 3), "Are we really grateful for the good already received?" She continues, "Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more." This question of gratitude arises in our thought as we meet students of Christian Science living in areas where they are at the moment unable to participate in branch church activities. Are we who live in countries already richly blessed in this respect really grateful for all the wide channels of The Mother Church, founded by our God-inspired Leader? Do we all support the church activities and pray for the advancement of our Cause in all countries throughout the world?

The writer was invited during his tour to meet a group of students at a practitioner's apartment. Immediately on arrival he was almost overwhelmed by eager questions, such as: Do you have healings at every service? Isn't it wonderful to be able to attend two services on Sunday? Do you really have Christian Science churches in your country which hold a thousand people? What about lectures? Someone remarked, "You know, we've never had a lecture here, never!"

Do not these pioneers of Truth deserve our strongest support in their desire for spiritual unfoldment and in their courageous struggle against apathy, ignorance, and mortal mind's opposition? How essential it is, then, to be clear in our understanding of the universality of "Church," of its spiritual basis and formation, as defined by Mrs. Eddy on page 583 of Science and Health:

"The structure of Truth and Love; whatever rests upon and proceeds from divine Principle."

We should recognize that there is no place, remote or otherwise, in which God—Truth, Love, Principle—is not ever available, or where God's power cannot be demonstrated in the healing and regeneration of mankind. Man, made in God's image and likeness, cannot be deprived of the activity of Church, for Truth, Love, and Principle are all-inclusive and ever present, filling all space. This fact will be demonstrated, and God's kingdom will be established as mankind puts off the limitations and frustrations of material sense and accepts the one God, infinite good, as available to all.

The second paragraph of our Leader's definition of "Church" underlines the universal practicality of the institution of Church, by which mankind is helped in putting off old beliefs and in putting on the new man as revealed in Christian Science. It reads: "The Church is that institution, which affords proof of its utility and is found elevating the race, rousing the dormant understanding from material beliefs to the apprehension of spiritual ideas and the demonstration of divine Science, thereby casting out devils, or error, and healing the sick."

The institution of Church must be found "elevating the race." The word "race" brings rich unfoldment as one realizes that this Church exists to purify and spiritualize the thinking of all mankind. Thus, although a Church of Christ, Scientist, may be located in a certain geographical district and its membership directly concerned with its own particular problems, every branch church helps in the larger, wider work of elevating the human race.

Branch churches are spiritually nurtured as members utilize the wide channels of The Mother Church to the utmost extent of their understanding. A branch church reaches individuals far beyond those who attend its Sunday services and Wednesday testimony meetings. It gives lectures in large halls and theaters, maintains a free Reading Room and lending library in some busy shopping district or business thoroughfare, and supplies authorized publications to libraries, railway terminals, and other suitable places. In one large city, the Churches of Christ, Scientist, unite in the ownership of a motor launch, manned entirely by Christian Scientists who distribute literature to officers and crews of ships coming from many European ports and from the Americas, Africa, and Asia. The mate of one of those vessels said to a Christian Science worker, "I visit all the chief European ports several times every year, and never do I fail to find some Christian Science literature in the dock club or canteen."

In the proportion that the members of branch churches utilize the activities so generously placed at their disposal by The Mother Church, there will flow from these activities an increase of invigorating good to the world.

The definition of "Church" makes it clear that the institution in its activities must engage in "casting out devils, or error, and healing the sick." Indeed, all who wholeheartedly unite with this institution learn to practice Christian Science in everyday life. The branch church will make sound progress as it widens its scope of healing, as its members learn to follow the Master's injunction (Matt. 10:8), "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils." Since Christian Science is scientific and its truths are provable, those church members who gain a deep enough understanding of this Science often become public practitioners and devote their whole time to the healing work. When first organized, a branch church need have no more than one active practitioner whose card is listed in the Journal; but as the membership grows in spiritual understanding, the church grows, and its influence expands until more and more students enter full-time Christian Science practice. This growth is true church building.

The universality of Church has been summarized in the following words from Hymn No. 141 in the Christian Science Hymnal:

Fruitful shall our tillage be,
Known the work of perfect Mind,
Leaves be gathered from the tree
For the healing of mankind.

"GLORIOUS LIBERTY"

MILLY MADYLEINE THEAL

"THE creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God," the Apostle Paul declared (Rom. 8:21). Could he not have meant that humanity would be delivered from the bondage of materiality and find true identity in Spirit? It is inherent in the nature of mankind to desire to be delivered from material evils and to gain the joy and freedom of health, happiness, and success. Paul implied that this liberty is attained through the power of the Christ, Truth, illumining the understanding. He speaks of this freedom in his letter to the Galatians (5:1) as "the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free."

It is obvious from Paul's two statements that it is ignorance of the Christ, Truth, which binds humanity. Therefore it must be the understanding of Truth which frees. In reality freedom is man's divine heritage by virtue of his sonship with God. However, the human consciousness, oblivious of man's divine rights, must be awakened from the mortal dream of existence in matter. It must be aroused to the truth that Life is God.

Christ Jesus, in declaring that knowing the truth would make us free, prefaced this statement with the condition necessarily precedent to this knowledge. "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:31, 32). In other words, we must accept and live the Master's teaching. We must do all that the word "continue" implies. We must persistently abide in Jesus' teaching, denying the reality of evil and declaring the reality of good. We must consistently live the truth as well as declare it. There must be found in our consciousness no place for allegiance to matter in any form.

Mary Baker Eddy gives us a concise and comprehensive statement of the teaching of the Master. She states in "Unity of Good" (p. 46): "He taught no selfhood as existent in matter. In his identity there is no evil. Individuality and Life were real to him only as spiritual and good, not as material or evil." In Christ Jesus' temptation in the wilderness we find that when he voiced the truth of God and man, the devil or error confronted him no longer. At the pool of Bethesda, Jesus healed the impotent one by seeing only the truth of man as God's reflection, whole, perfect, and free. He saw the true image and likeness of God where others saw only a crippled mortal. It was Jesus' realization of the truth which awakened the dreamer from the dream of life in matter.

The writer recalls an experience which showed her clearly how Truth operates. One night in the dark she fell from a stone wall onto a concrete driveway. As she went down she found herself declaring, "I am not in matter." With difficulty she pulled herself up, to find that she could neither walk nor stand, for she seemed to have lost her sense of equilibrium. She sat on the wall and clung to a railing, and in spite of intense pain, she persistently kept on declaring that she was not in matter. She saw her true identity as a spiritual child of God, not having been born into matter. After a while she felt quite free, and joyously she walked home.

However, that night after she had been asleep for only a short time, she awakened in great pain. So intense was this suggestion that she felt incapable of doing proper metaphysical work for herself. She reached out for the telephone on the bedside table, but before her hand could pick up the instrument, the thought came, "God's work is done; it was done before I realized that I was not in matter." She saw clearly that she was no more in matter at that moment than she had been at the time of the fall. The realization of her true spiritual identity must have brought healing then and there, for she soon fell asleep. In the morning she awakened entirely free, so free that it was some time before she recalled the incident of the evening before. The trouble did not return.

Throughout the years of the Master's fruitful ministry he constantly gave undeniable proof of the power of spiritual understanding to heal and save mankind. He freed men from the bondage of every conceivable evil contingent on life in matter. However, in teaching his disciples, he foresaw and foretold a still greater revelation of truth to come, because at that time they were not sufficiently advanced to hear more. We see this prophecy fulfilled in our time in the revelation of Christian Science by Mrs. Eddy.

In this Science our Leader gives us the modus operandi for the healing of sickness, sin, and all forms of human bondage. With consecrated study of the Bible and Mrs. Eddy's writings we shall find ourselves demonstrating ever greater freedom from material thinking, with all its attendant ills, and growing into greater spirituality.

Human bondage assumes many forms, but Christian Science is a liberator from them all. To those laboring under seeming slavery to the drug habit, liquor, tobacco, and gluttonous appetite, the message is that the man of God's creation is held by no supposititious material law. God is the only presence, substance, law, and power in all the universe. The bondage of sickness is seen to be but a mortal dream, utterly without reality or existence. Christ, Truth, is ever present to dispel the illusion of the senses and to restore the sufferer to the consciousness of his divine wholeness and completeness.

However, we are taught in Science that we must do more than declare the truth and deny the error. To be true disciples of the Master, we must not merely state the truth, but we must live it. We must demonstrate in daily living Christly love, compassion, and charity. In every act we must rise above self-love and self-will and show forth the will of the Father. We must conquer fear and doubt and rise in the supremacy of faith which knows that with God all things are possible. We must go forth to our daily tasks, unwavering in loyalty to God and to our Leader, and accomplish that unto which God directs us. Thus only can we be true disciples and know "the glorious liberty of the children of God."

Whenever we consent to error in any degree, we are forging the chains of mortal bondage; we are confining thought behind the prison walls of error's constructing. The error is mental, and we must dispose of it mentally. Conditions of thought which resist the truth—human outlining, stubborn self-will, resentment, and disregard for the welfare of others—must be laid down at the feet of the Christ in obedient self-surrender. Submission to Spirit demonstrates dominion over the flesh and its lying claims and bestows the liberty of man, created in the freedom of divine right.

Mrs. Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 227): "'Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.' Love and Truth make free, but evil and error lead into captivity. Christian Science raises the standard of liberty and cries: 'Follow me! Escape from the bondage of sickness, sin, and death!' Jesus marked out the way. Citizens of the world, accept the 'glorious liberty of the children of God,' and be free!"

THE ETERNALITY OF CHRISTMAS

CLARENCE W. STEVES

ONE of the priceless possessions that Christian Science gives to its students is an eternal Christmas. To the Christian Scientist, Christmas is not confined to the birthday of Jesus, our great Teacher and Way-shower, but is based upon the eternity of the Christ, as exemplified by the Master, and thus is daily available in all its helpfulness. Jesus said (John 8:58), "Before Abraham was, I am," thus defining the eternity of the Christ.

It is this true and deeper sense of Christmas that we as students of Christian Science can celebrate daily and continuously. For we too can say in Christianly scientific terms that before the human concept was, we truly always existed as the forever expression of God in the Mind that is God. This is the acknowledgment of our spiritual pre-existence. Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, shows us that it was this acknowledgment of pre-existence that made Jesus mighty (see Miscellaneous Writings, p. 189). This same acknowledgment is possible on our part and will make us mighty to the degree that we understand this wonderful, spiritual fact.

Christian Science teaches that man is not a finite physical personality, following other personalities in the cycle of material living. The gift of Christian Science to the world is the truth that man is now the beloved son of God, in whom the Father is well pleased. Understanding the eternity of the Christ, one sees man existing in timeless being, without any fleshly accompaniment.

At Christmas time, when the world celebrates the birth of Christ Jesus, the master Metaphysician, Christian Scientists may well consider a Christmas message from Mrs. Eddy to her household. In it our Leader wrote (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 263): "A word to the wise is sufficient. Mother wishes you all a happy Christmas, a feast of Soul and a famine of sense." The true sense of Christmas has been so perverted by material gift giving, rushing about trying to appease personal sense, false material reveling and merriment, that it is necessary for us as students of Christian Science to guard against being drawn into the common whirlpool of excitement, confusion, and delusion.

The desire of every Christian Scientist should be to partake of "a feast of Soul and a famine of sense." This does not mean that we cannot celebrate Christmas with joy and festivity, but let us be watchful that we do not pervert the basic import of this wonderful day. Our Leader shows us that mortal mind inevitably perverts everything that it touches. To celebrate Christmas Day in quiet prayer and thanksgiving for the precious gift of the Christ is to experience something far beyond any outward symbol. To be able to put off the old for the new is to see man in the pattern of the Christ. It is to experience Christmas in so deep and so far-reaching a way that we truly forward peace on earth and good will to all men.

A helpful experience came to the writer one Christmas Eve. The household was preparing for the usual trimming of the tree, arranging the pine and spruce boughs around the rooms, when the telephone rang. It was a desperate call for the writer to come to a certain hotel to help one who was apparently very ill. For a moment personal sense argued, "Oh, but it is so warm and comfortable in front of the fireplace, and this is Christmas Eve, a night to be at home!" Then this statement of Mrs. Eddy's came to him (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 458): "Divinity is always ready. Semper paratus is Truth's motto." Immediately the argument of personal sense gave way, and the trip was made across town.

The hotel room was dark, cold, and dreary, and its occupant was too ill to speak. Nevertheless the writer sat there rejoicing in the fact of the ever-present Christ, Truth. The door opened, and two men came in—men who were apparently trying to celebrate Christmas Eve by drinking. Great compassion filled the student's thought, and our Leader's words, previously quoted in this article, came to him vividly and with new power: "a feast of Soul and a famine of sense."

Yes, the writer thought, "a feast of Soul," of God, forever radiant, complete, ever present, identifying His presence through the light of spiritual satisfaction and freedom. He saw that truly this is the real and only Christmas. What was there present that could oppose this glorious "feast of Soul," that could pervert, invert, or subvert the truth? Nothing! What he saw was false and unreal—this picture of a sick person, or of a drunken one. Joy and gratitude poured forth for this eternality of the real Christmas, for the evidence of the ever-present Christ. Soon the room was quiet. The patient had fallen asleep. The men had left, and the student saw that Soul, even God, the only Father-Mother, was present, forever caring unfailingly for its own.

Later on at his home a call came to the writer from the patient, saying that on Christmas morning he had awakened well and had made the trip home, where he experienced a joyous day.

Could a greater gift be given to the world than deeper consecration to the eternal Christ by those who are students of this precious Science? Then the angel host will again be heard singing, "On earth peace, good will toward men," and mankind will respond with rejoicing.

As the poet Whittier writes (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 170):

The outward symbols disappear
From him whose inward sight is clear,
And small must be the choice of days
To him who fills them all with praise.
Keep while ye need it, brothers mine,
With honest zeal your Christmas sign,
But judge not him who every morn
Feels in his heart the Lord Christ born.

INSTANTANEOUS HEALINGS

LUCILLE P. SHIRLEY

JESUS healed all kinds of diseases as well as untoward conditions to which the people of his day were subjected. We know from the Gospels that he did not consider any disease or condition beyond healing and that he expected healing to be instantaneous. The four Gospels, in numerous instances, state explicitly that Jesus accomplished many healings immediately.

Christian Science teaches that the Master's healing ability was the result of his scientific and Godlike thinking. Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (pp. 178, 179), "Whoever reaches the understanding of Christian Science in its proper signification will perform the sudden cures of which it is capable; but this can be done only by taking up the cross and following Christ in the daily life."

Christian Science is the law of God, good. This law is based on the truth that God created man in His image and that therefore he is good. Understanding this law, Jesus utilized it in healing the sick, overcoming sin, and raising the dead. His realization that no power supersedes God's ever-operative law enabled him to heal instantaneously.

If we would see health, success, and joy manifested forthwith in our experience, our thoughts must be Godlike. Pure thoughts from God necessarily result in right and good actions. However, the beginner in the study of this Science may feel that he has not enough time to follow the Christ fully because he has a business or a home to maintain. Perhaps he is a professional person with little time outside his regular duties.

Whatever our situation, we can pray for the Mind of Christ to be evidenced in our daily experience. In the home or in business, when our environment appears to be less than good, we can immediately reverse this belief by knowing that the will of God is good and ever operative. If our understanding of the truth is clear enough, we shall see the right situation appear promptly.

The question is often asked, "Why do I not have instantaneous healings?" There may be several reasons. Perhaps such thoughts as fear, hate, ignorance, or bitterness are lurking undetected in our consciousness. When an unhappy condition arises, we must first cast out of thought such unholy thinking in order that the truth may appear. This may seem difficult, and our healing is then delayed. On the other hand, if we are in a state of loving receptivity, if we have the understanding that actually we are all perfect ideas in Mind, then our healings will be instantaneous. Jesus' understanding of this fact was the reason why he seldom needed time to heal lack, blindness, palsy, and lameness. We can, through our correct knowledge of the harmonious coexistence of God and man, annul the belief that the so-called carnal mind has power to delay healing.

Jesus said (Matt. 16:24), "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." If we wish to accomplish his works, we must constantly renounce the belief that ungodly thinking is a part of the real man.

In our human experience it may not be possible to spend each moment affirming that our present status is actually perfect and spiritual; but the quality of our thinking in general determines whether or not we shall have a prolonged or a quick and complete healing. Thus in proportion to the clarity of our thought shall we be able to avail ourselves of God's laws.

In the purification of our consciousness, perhaps one of the most difficult things is to see all men as in reality the sons of God. Here self-love must yield to universal love. Insofar as we know that all are actually the present recipients of the bountiful gifts of God we shall recognize that He does not express Himself partially to any, nor does

He delay action. Our duty as Christian Scientists is to love constantly, consistently, vigorously, and impersonally.

A clear and pure consciousness proves the presence of God, the power which brings quick and permanent healings. Our Leader says (Science and Health, p. 411), "If Spirit or the power of divine Love bear witness to the truth, this is the ultimatum, the scientific way, and the healing is instantaneous."

Let us recall the incident concerning the servant of the high priest. We read in the Biblical accounts that this servant was with the multitude who came prior to the crucifixion to apprehend Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane. Peter, thinking to protect the Master, cut off the ear of the servant. Jesus healed the ear immediately. He evidently had the same compassion for the servant, who was with his enemies, as he had had for his friend Lazarus when he raised him from the tomb. That he healed both instantly proves that his love for the servant was as pure as his love for Lazarus. Why?

Jesus' thought rose above the evidence of the physical senses. He saw the spiritual man. He did not argue for error. He did not believe that the servant's ear would be difficult to heal, nor did he hold resentment against him. And in the raising of Lazarus the Master refuted the belief of those around him that Lazarus was dead and had been so too long to be raised. Jesus, by his scientific and pure thinking, bore witness to the infallible truth that man is now and forever perfect, forever alive. Consequently time was not needed for the consummation of these facts, for they were already present.

These divinely natural works came through the amplitude of Jesus' love and through his pure, scientific thinking. As with Jesus, so must it be with us. It is the purified consciousness which recognizes the ever-availability and ever-presence of God's laws. Thus, the perception, the acceptance, and the utilization of Christliness bring immediate relief and permanent and joyous peace.

SCIENTIFIC NEGATION

ROBERT A. CURRY

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE denounces error in all its forms as suppositional. The Science of Christianity knows no mistakes. These do not occur in the kingdom of God, where divine Principle reigns supreme and where man as God's image partakes of the purity and perfection of being.

Error, however, appears as truth to false material sense. Its masquerade is uncovered to that human consciousness which hungers for righteousness and accepts the fundamental teaching of the allness of God, divine Love. Error disappears when its nothingness becomes fully apparent.

The teaching of the Master, Christ Jesus, is specific on this point of error's nothingness. He said of the devil, or evil (John 8:44), "There is no truth in him." Mary Baker Eddy has this to say in "Retrospection and Introspection" (p. 55): "Let us follow the example of Jesus, the master Metaphysician, and gain sufficient knowledge of error to destroy it with Truth. Evil is not mastered by evil; it can only be overcome with good. This brings out the nothingness of evil and the eternal somethingness, vindicates the divine Principle, and improves the race of Adam."

This statement declares as law the orderly procedure in demonstrating Christian Science. God will uncover error to the student of Christian Science in proportion to the spiritualization of his thought. In obedience to true law the student then receives that further spiritual enlightenment which enables him to perceive the falsity as well as the opposite truth which dissolves this falsity. Such an unfoldment accompanies progress from a belief in material life to an understanding of God as Life.

The genius of this law, whereby error is known only that one may know its unreality, lies in error's harmlessness to the wayfarer in Science. If human will rather than divine illumination seems to make error apparent to human consciousness, the spiritual ability to make nothing of this lie is lacking. Error would then appear to be magnified rather than obliterated. It would remain, suppositionally, until human growth in spirituality brought that added understanding of infinite Truth which neutralizes the lie and effectually puts an end to it.

A characteristic of Christian Science is its tenderness. It teaches that evil is not real, that it is not to be feared, since God, good, is All. To prove this, however, one must know what evil's claim to reality is and the quality and power of the truth which counters and eliminates the untruth about God and His spiritual creation. God never creates a lie, and He does not know a lie, for, as stated in Psalms (119:142), "Thy law is the truth."

The Master gained a clearer sense of God as Truth through a steadily unfolding consciousness of error's effort to establish its hold in human belief and through his increasing knowledge of the infinite goodness of God, which exterminates error. Jesus was able to separate the truth from the lie at each step of his career, and the truth he knew of God was always abundantly equal to coping with and destroying the lie in the phase in which evil appeared at each stage of his growth. The errors which Christ Jesus saw parading as truth occur equally today, some in more aggravated forms and in more deceptive ones. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" in answer to her question, "Does Christian Science, or metaphysical healing, include medication, material hygiene, mesmerism, hypnotism, theosophy, or spiritualism?" Mrs. Eddy's reply is (p. 484), "Not one of them is included in it."

It is essential that we see in all clarity what the nature is of that which is to be denied. Further, it is imperative to know the truth which replaces this untruth. If mankind is called on through Christian Science to turn away from the spurious substitutes for the divine power to heal, then the divine healing power must be explained and demonstrated as capable of fully replacing other so-called means of healing.

Mankind must be shown how Christian Science rescues the human mind and body from the supposed thralldom of disease and death. Christian Science healing does meet every need, for it relies on the allness of divine Love for unlimited spiritual wisdom and power.

Truth fills all space. Matter is not present; only Mind is. The tortuous lies of mortal, material consciousness surrender sooner or later to the fact that there is no place where error can hide or act. Truth is everywhere present. The children of God know Truth's omnipresence and feel inherently the unlimited goodness of God. Error's beliefs never enter the kingdom of God nor touch the infinite intelligence of Mind. Hence, they are not and never can be communicated by Mind to Mind's reflection, man, made in the likeness of God.

The Science of God is also the Science of man's immortality and spiritual perfection. There is no science of evil. There are no laws which sustain evil. Since it is without law, evil is actually without existence. The laws of God, as revealed in Christian Science and practiced in this age, expose the myth that error is both cause and effect. God is the only cause, and every effect is in reality derived from this sole cause. Such effect is as good in quality as the cause, which is God. This cause is known and proved to be perfect, for only perfection emanates from God.

Error is denied any rights whatsoever on the ground that God is All and that error is error and no part of Truth. We negate a lie; we affirm the truth. God is then known as infinite Truth, and man is seen as he truly is—the son and inheritor of Truth.

WORK WITHOUT WORRY

MARIAN PITCHER CLARK

DIVINE Mind's activity is effortless. It is the harmonious unfoldment of spiritual ideas. God has already done all, and what He has made is perfect. He is changeless Being, ever developing the business of the universe. As we read in the Gospel of John (1:3), "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made."

Spiritual man, the incorporeal idea of God, reflects Mind's unlabored activity. Man's ideas flow from Mind, and his ability is of God. Man's function is to express God, to be His witness. When we demonstrate the Mind which is God through the expression of such qualities as intelligence, love, thoroughness, and accuracy, the consciousness of perfect activity is ours.

A false sense of responsibility is based on the erroneous premise that we are corporeal persons who must accomplish certain results by our own mental or physical labor within the limits of time and space. True activity takes place in the timeless infinitude of spiritual being and cannot be materially measured or outlined. This activity is regulated by God's law of perfect order and co-ordination. As we realize these spiritual facts, we are able not only to achieve more in human experience, but also to maintain our poise and dominion. Reflecting the intelligence of God, we act with decisiveness and sound judgment. In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 515), "All that God imparts moves in accord with Him, reflecting goodness and power."

As we see that all men are, in truth, expressing the one perfect Mind, improved relationships result. As we hold to the perfection of God, we comprehend the real nature of man, and we love what we behold. We avail ourselves of divinely supplied wisdom to guide us harmoniously and find time for deeds of love. Demonstrating the divine Mind as our Mind, we shall detect and forestall any so-called imposition of the carnal mind. When we are consciously at one with Truth and Love, we spontaneously express the qualities of graciousness and precision.

Principle never requires us to do more work than we can do with love and joy and gratitude. If we seem to have more to do than we can properly take care of, let us bring our God-bestowed intelligence to bear on the problem. We can find a way to systematize our tasks so that they will be performed with greater dispatch. When faced with a new duty, let us know that infinite Mind gives us wisdom, and wisdom will show us how to eliminate unnecessary effort in the performance of this undertaking. And let us be sure that we do not allow our usefulness to be impaired by assuming tasks that should be done by someone else. In her Message to The Mother Church for 1900 Mrs. Eddy says (p. 8): "Usefulness is doing rightly by yourself and others. We lose a percentage due to our activity when doing the work that belongs to another."

We must bear in mind that we are serving Principle, not finite person or mortal mind. We must be able to serve with dignity, freedom, and self-respect. We are not to lend ourselves to unprincipled endeavors, thus becoming servants to mortal mind. We read in Romans (6:16), "His servants ye are to whom ye obey." How important, then, to be obedient always to divine Principle! Let us never lose sight of the fact that our main duty is to abide in enlightened understanding and reflect divine Love.

A new student of Christian Science was burdened and worried over what appeared to be serious difficulties in her chosen vocation. She was afraid that she might fail. When she told a Christian Science practitioner in considerable detail about the circumstances with which she had to contend, he asked, "What difference do they make?"

The young woman was at first astonished by this question, but then she realized that the practitioner did not mean that it was unimportant to bring out good results in one's profession, but that he was drawing her attention to the fact that no such upheaval was occurring in spiritual reality, where all is complete concord. As he expounded the truths of being to her, a weight of anxiety dropped from her. She saw that, in truth, the one Mind was perfectly governing her and her associates. She resumed her work with a new lightness and joy, and harmony was established. Shortly thereafter she was highly commended by those in authority on the creditable performance of her duties.

Scientific consciousness, gained through Christ, Truth, understands God and manifests God. God's business is expressed by His likeness, man. Christ Jesus said (John 14:10), "The Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works." As we change our viewpoint from that of a mortal striving to supply his needs to the realization that true activity is Mind's revelation of its own nature, we cease pushing. We are willing to let Mind be evidenced through us and our affairs. We see that our duties must be well done because all legitimate work is God's work. We know that the illimitable plan of Mind's unfoldment includes its own supply. Mind's ideas are supported by Mind. At one with infinite Spirit, we are at one with all substance. This correct standpoint results in the healing of a false sense of business, and our employment then becomes both pleasurable and satisfactorily profitable.

We must identify ourselves as Spirit's reflection in order to bring our human enterprises under the law of Mind's harmonious government. This right identification is our scientific protection from the arguments of fear and inadequacy. Having no finite, personal sense of self, we feel no false responsibility. We let divine Love's plan unfold by its own momentum. Humanly, we cannot accelerate or restrain Love's activity.

As mortal will is subjugated and the will of God is permitted to hold sway in our lives, we are consciously united with God, the source of all ability and success. When our purpose and aim are to glorify God, we shall work with assurance of progress. His power will be exerted in us to carry out His design.

MAN DOES NOT DETERIORATE

MIRIAM BECKHOFF DAMSGAARD

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE reveals man's true identity to be the perfect child of God, not subject to deterioration, but ageless, deathless, and free. It makes plain to mankind the way of dominion over discord and decay through demonstration of man's oneness, or unity, with God.

Many passages in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy expose the fallacy of generally accepted theories about deterioration. For example, on page 78 we read: "The decaying flower, the blighted bud, the gnarled oak, the ferocious beast,—like the discords of disease, sin, and death—are unnatural. They are the falsities of sense, the changing deflections of mortal mind; they are not the eternal realities of Mind." The word "deflection" implies that false beliefs are departures from the straight course of logical reasoning, deviations from the spiritual facts of God and man.

Science reveals these true facts. It teaches that God is Spirit, incorporeal, omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent. He is true substance, Life, Mind. He is all-inclusive, infinite Love. Science shows that in reality man is the image and likeness of God. The continuity of man's existence is ensured because he is the expression of Life, Love. His true senses are spiritual and forever unimpaired, for he reflects the substance of Soul, or Mind. Man is law-abiding and orderly, for he bears witness only to Principle. Armed with the true facts of being as taught by Christian Science, mankind can master the widespread belief that man is a mortal who deteriorates.

The belief that one deteriorates as a result of increasing age must yield to the fact that man is spiritually created and therefore ageless. Mortal mind has no intelligence with which to create, no substance out of which to form anything, and no power to maintain its supposed creation. The infinite Father-Mother God alone creates man. Eternal Mind forms man spiritually as the image, the idea, of divine beauty and goodness. The real man co-exists forever with God. He is the reflection of the "high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy" (Isa. 57:15). As mortals discard material misconceptions, the true sense of creation is brought to light. Creation is seen to be the spiritual unfoldment of that which eternally is—God's perfect reflection, man including the universe, forever inseparable from Him.

If false belief asserts that man is a mortal and at the mercy of destructive elements of thought which weaken him and eventually wear him out, we must deny these assertions. One element with which humanity must deal is pressure. Not only are mortals supposedly subject to the pressures of their physical environment, but they are also seemingly weighed down by frustration, discouragement, and confused world thought. Mankind can escape the exhausting pressure of these earth weights only through Christian Science. Through this Science we learn how to obey the command (II Cor. 6:17), "Come out from among them, and be ye separate." We must reject error's attempt to confine us to materiality. As we perceive the real man's boundless reflection of buoyancy, spontaneity, and joy, and as we strive to express these qualities in daily living, we demonstrate increasing freedom from pressure.

The real man is serene, steadfast, and always at peace. He is not in bondage to the belief of tension or its wearying effects. Fear, anger, and hatred, which seem to produce tension, exist only in supposititious mortal mind and are consequently illusory, impermanent, and unreal. The individual proves the powerlessness of these erroneous suggestions to produce deterioration when he learns more of the divine nature and of man's true selfhood as the expression of that nature. Spirituality elevates thought and brings quiet trust in Mind's omnipotence.

It is commonly believed that mankind deteriorate as a result of friction. They seem to become the prey to unhappiness and disappointment, which rub constantly at their composure and sap their strength. Friction is often evidenced in discordant human relationships; fretfulness, irritation, and conflicting opinions claim to wear down natural poise. Christian Science provides healing balm for human friction through its revelation that the one Mind, God, is the source of all true activity and that in reality all His children, reflecting Him, dwell together in harmony. We must transform troubled human experience by the use of such spiritual qualities as gentleness, tenderness, and patience. Through Science we find genuine happiness in gaining a correct view of ourselves and of our fellow men as God's reflection. Friction is removed through true self-control, which expresses divine government, and the law of loving our neighbor is thereby scientifically fulfilled. In Science, man is forever progressive. Material laws which claim to hamper one's progress through reaction, reversal, and retrogression must be annulled through recourse to Truth. The individual progresses by forsaking the erroneous belief that matter possesses power and substance, and by understanding that each thought and action is based on the foundation of Spirit. Mrs. Eddy beautifully describes man's fetterless, upward-soaring freedom in these words (Science and Health, p. 258): "God expresses in man the infinite idea forever developing itself, broadening and rising higher and higher from a boundless basis."

As the spiritual understanding of the substance of Soul fills our thought, we lift ourselves above the downward drag of materialism, inertia, and acquiescence in error. We advance step by step through each victory over error. We press forward, demonstrating dominion over the belief of deterioration by meeting each day's demands for consecration and progress.

Freedom from deterioration is humanly manifest in increasing strength and wider usefulness. This freedom benefits every aspect of human affairs—businesses grow more prosperous, friendships more stable, home ties closer and more loving. Christian Science has brought these grand results within reach of all. As our Leader states (ibid., p. 246): "Life and goodness are immortal. Let us then shape our views of existence into loveliness, freshness, and continuity, rather than into age and blight."

Divine Energy

FLORENCE MINERVA MILLMAN

I FELT the quickening breath of Life divine
When first the truth came to my waking thought;
It came on tireless wings of healing grace,
And to my tired heart new vigor brought.
It lifted me above the fear of pain;
I felt the strength of Spirit's holy might,
Which holds and keeps the universe and man
Forever in the consciousness of light.
It was Life's sovereign, ever-present power,
The truth sustaining and maintaining all
In God's eternal, incorporeal realm,
From which the pure idea can never fall.

THE GREATEST GIFT

IN one of his parables, Jesus likens the kingdom of heaven to a pearl of great price. He tells of a man who saw such a pearl and sold all of his possessions in order to purchase it. The priceless pearl—the kingdom of heaven—is available to every individual. Indeed, it is included in his very nature, his divine sonship as a child of God.

This heavenly gift is actually the gift of life eternal, but it is not everlasting material life, with its pains and pleasures, fears, discords, and uncertainties. The priceless gift of eternal life is the continuous unfoldment of spiritual good in all creation.

Christ Jesus walked among men to show them how to find and to enjoy the pearl of great price. And our beloved Leader, the Master's faithful disciple, revealed to us in her discovery of Christian Science how we can enjoy in daily life the gift of heaven. Referring to this healing and enlightening Science, Mary Baker Eddy says (Miscellaneous Writings, pp. 252, 253): "It is the dear children's toy and strong tower; the wise man's spiritual dictionary; the poor man's money; yea, it is the pearl priceless whereof our Master said, if a man findeth, he goeth and selleth all that he hath and buyeth it. Buyeth it!"

Everyone knows that a gift is of little value unless it is used. The child who receives a toy as a gift finds no satisfaction in it unless he can play with it. The wise man gains nothing from a dictionary unless he uses it; neither is a poor man fed or clothed simply through the possession of money. He must find the food and clothing and purchase it. And so it is with the gift of the kingdom of heaven—the enjoyment of life eternal. It is not only a gift to be accepted, but one to be worked for, used, and enjoyed. How do we do this? Through following the example of Jesus and demonstrating the truth of Christian Science in daily living and through surrendering the false beliefs of material living for the enduring things of Spirit.

Our great Way-shower knew the value of eternal life—the greatest of all gifts—and the great price which he had to pay for it. When he passed the cup to his disciples at the feast of the Passover, he told them all to drink of it and to drink all of it. And this ritual symbolized the fact that the gift of eternal life can be secured only through the complete surrender of all materiality and through the inspiration of divine Love. Mrs. Eddy writes (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 349), "Christian Science is a divine largess, a gift of God—understood by and divinely natural to him who sits at the feet of Jesus clothed in truth, who is putting off the hypothesis of matter because he is conscious of the allness of God—'looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith.'"

The question which every Christian Scientist may well ask himself at this Christmas season is plain: "Am I willing to leave all for Christ, Truth, part with the material sense of existence, and begin to enjoy here and now the greatest gift of all, the gift of eternal life?" The great Master and his devoted follower, our revered Leader, paid the price not only for their own redemption, but for that of all men that they might see the way clearly and follow in it.

In a message to her students Mrs. Eddy writes (ibid., p. 257), "For your manifold Christmas memorials, too numerous to name, I group you in one benison and send you my Christmas gift, two words enwrapped,—love and thanks." In this statement our Leader points out two aids to the enjoyment of the great gift of eternal life: love and thanks. One cannot enter the kingdom of heaven unless his consciousness is filled with love and gratitude. Love for God and for man in His likeness constitutes the fulfillment of the greatest commandment of all. This pure love overcomes hatred, lack, fear, and selfishness. Through exercising unselfed love, one finds that all human needs are met, and thought becomes identified with the heaven of Soul.

Jesus overcame every obstacle of material sense through the practice of unselfed love. It was through love for God and man that he overcame the world, vanquished the tomb, and rose to the complete enjoyment of life eternal at the moment of his ascension. And how often we read of the Master's expression of gratitude. How often he thanked his Father, sometimes before there was any human evidence that his prayer had been answered. If, at this Christmas season, there are some who feel that they are alone, neglected, or without home or friends, let them remember the great example of the Way-shower. Willing to suffer for the sins of men that he might show them how to achieve eternal life, he purchased the gift of God with his life in serving all men. His whole earthly experience was a psalm of love and gratitude, whereby the sick, the sinning, and the dead were redeemed from the discords of materiality. And life eternal with its heaven of harmony was revealed as a present possibility.

The Apostle John, who experienced the blessings of the kingdom of heaven while still dwelling on earth, testified of God's love for all. And he said that if we trusted divine Love, our sincere and unselfish petitions would be answered. At the conclusion of his first epistle he writes (5:20): "We know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." May all Christian Scientists today express their love and gratitude for Jesus and for his demonstration of the life which is found in Christ, as did the Apostle Paul when he said (II Cor. 9:15), "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift."

"MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU"

IN his discourse with his disciples the night before his crucifixion, Jesus declared (John 14:27): "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Here the Prince of Peace made it clear that his gift of tranquillity was spiritual. It was "not as the world giveth"—precarious, uncertain, vacillating, unjust. His peace is of God and is divinely mental, stable, calm, certain, enduring, unchanging, just. It is peace as it exists eternally in the spiritual realm of the real.

Genuine peace is a state of spiritual, immortal perfection. It is a state in which each idea of God, good, fulfills its God-ordained function without encroaching upon the activities of other ideas, without pressure, crowding, pride, self-will, or jealousy, because both the ideas and their activity are in Spirit, where there is no matter or trespassing mortal error. Peace is immortal, infinite, eternal.

While nations and peoples strive for peace, while they earnestly seek to bring about a happy condition of tranquillity between antagonistic or conflicting groups or forces, Christian Science reveals the way to real peace as promised by Christ Jesus. Mary Baker Eddy points out in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 278), "Peace is the promise and reward of rightness." Later she continues: "The Principle of all power is God, and God is Love. Whatever brings into human thought or action an element opposed to Love, is never requisite, never a necessity, and is not sanctioned by the law of God, the law of Love." And she adds (ibid., p. 279), "The Principle of Christian Science demonstrates peace."

In the account of creation in Genesis, God's first utterance was, "Let there be light" (Gen. 1:3), and the record says, "And there was light." This light or illumination is spiritual; it involves wisdom, understanding, revelation. Spiritual clear-sightedness and understanding are indispensable aspects of peace.

God formed man after His own perfect likeness. God, Spirit, made only a spiritual man, a spiritual universe, a good and complete representation of His own perfection, order, and being. The law of God, of Love, was the only rule involved in His exclusive creation. Into this creation, by edict of God's beneficent law, went only the perfect ideas, which were designated good by their creator. The result of God's law is an eternally existent state of heavenly activity and bliss, in which there is deep calm, quietness, beauty, health, and freedom from disturbance and turmoil.

This harmonious atmosphere of spiritual calm is not visionary or impractical. It is a spiritual state of being, a divine fact, instantly available for each individual, yes, and for each nation, to prove and demonstrate. Peace is a spiritual actuality, a divinely righteous state, which through true prayer is available for the assistance of those who guide the destinies of peoples and nations. So mighty is the law of God that peace is instantly available, applicable, and provable in solving the most insignificant misunderstanding between neighbors as well as in settling great problems in the executive halls of government.

The Psalmist declared (Ps. 119:165), "Great peace have they which love thy law." While those who love and obey man-made laws may live in a state of comparative peace with others, those who actively love the law of God not only enjoy tranquillity with their neighbors, but they also have the greater peace, which includes spiritual quietness, health, happiness, harmony, joy. True peace in our hearts is evidenced in wisdom, foresight, alertness, orderliness, in every phase of our daily lives.

Great peace may seem to some a distant possibility, a state of bliss and joy entirely unattainable today. But Christian Science reveals the manner of its attainment. When the Master, Christ Jesus, left us his peace, he told us that we should not let our "heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." The way to tranquillity, then, includes the overcoming of fear and the healing of the troubled heart.

It seems so easy to worry or be fearful about national or international affairs, about our own life and welfare, about relationships with our families, our neighbors, our business associates. Such inharmonious, worried thinking is not conducive to peace. It should therefore be overcome with the higher law of God, divine Love.

Jesus promised that he would not leave us comfortless, without a perfect remedy for every discord. In his ministry he employed that remedy and left it as a bequest to all who are willing to understand and utilize it. His hope for all was that they would accept the ideals which he lived and taught and thus find peace. The divine requirement is to welcome the Christ, Truth, and to allow that divine influence to rule out of us all fearful, troublous thinking. Christ presents to human thought light, love, and understanding, which guide us in deciding wisely and quickly each step that we should take in working out human situations. Christ ushers into consciousness the spirit of Love, which induces us to love one another with unselfish, pure intent. In Love, God, there is no fear, no anxiety, no turmoil. Therefore our safety, security, and peace are to be found in an ever-unfolding understanding of Love and in actively living that Love in our daily lives.

When the Christ, the spirit of Life, Truth, and Love, is controlling an individual, that one has entered the path of great peace, along which he can walk securely with no fear of trouble. Such a one can declare with the assurance of the Psalmist (Ps. 23: 4), "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me."

Mrs. Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 264), "Spiritual living and blessedness are the only evidences, by which we can recognize true existence and feel the unspeakable peace which comes from an all-absorbing spiritual love." We live more spiritually as the Christ is understood. Great peace is the natural reward of entertaining the Christ, of loving God and our neighbor.

To the degree that the general thought of a nation is receptive and obedient to the Christ, Truth, its affairs are guided, protected, and blessed with that one and indivisible great peace which emanates from God. Job was told by Eliphaz (22:21), "Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace." Here then is the key to peace for each of us. Become acquainted with God and His Christ, and peace, great peace, not as the world knows it, but as it exists in divine consciousness, shall reign in our hearts. "My peace I give unto you" is a promise capable of fulfillment in the world today, as the Christ, Truth, is acknowledged, understood, and obeyed.

PIERCING DARKNESS

NO symbol of Truth is dearer to Christendom than that of the Bethlehem star. Princes and peasants have sung of the star; artists have painted it; adults and children have commemorated it in colorful pageantry; poets have lent their skill to its glorification. To one who has seen the light of Christian Science pierce the shadow of despair and illness, the Christmas season is a time for special joy. The significance of the Christ as God's ever-present idea has appeared to him; his life has become illumined by Truth.

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 320): "The star of Bethlehem is the star of Boston, high in the zenith of Truth's domain, that looketh down on the long night of human beliefs, to pierce the darkness and melt into dawn. The star of Bethlehem is the light of all ages; is the light of Love, to-day christening religion undefiled, divine Science; giving to it a new name, and the white stone in token of purity and permanence." The Christ, Truth, enlightens one's inmost thoughts as it reveals the fact of God's allness, His supremacy over the universe, and man's dominion as the Father's spiritual son. Through the Science of Christ a glow comes into one's consciousness and can never be put out because that glow is evidence of one's immortality. The perfect, spiritual selfhood which one possesses in Christ is asserting its presence.

Many individuals suffer from the mental atmosphere of the world, and they are helpless to dispel the darkness of materialism until Christian Science destroys the mortal beliefs which brought the gloom. Then these sufferers are able to cast off the mental darkness and distressing pressure by the Christly understanding that Spirit fills the universe and that matter is only a supposed absence of Spirit. Suffering in a false atmosphere of thought may seem to be a disadvantage until one learns that such discomfort is proof that he is outgrowing materialism. Mrs. Eddy writes in "Unity of Good" (p. 56), "Holding a quickened sense of false environment, and suffering from mentality in opposition to Truth, are significant of that state of mind which the actual understanding of Christian Science first eliminates and then destroys."

By the same token one may see that insensitiveness to materialism indicates spiritual dullness, inability to detect mortal mind's presence; the unawakened thought is at home in the darkness, in harmony with error. The beam of Christliness, the star of the ages, must pierce that insensitiveness to error and rouse the dullard from the dream of personal life and mortal inertia.

The same innocence and spirituality which make an individual aware of false environment and uncomfortable in it give him strength to cast out darkness. Spiritual purity provides the power that demonstrates the glowing presence of God and His ideas. The Science of Christ gives its students discrimination to such a degree that they cannot be deceived by error's workings. Detecting the mental discomfort, they are able to prove mortal mind's nonexistence; and thus they are protected from evil influence. Through the Christ, the divine nature, they destroy the false beliefs which make error seem to possess power.

Christ Jesus kept his own light shining. He identified himself as the Son of God, not only by his words but by the divine nature he reflected. The Master's sustained realization of man's unity with God kept him alert to the mental conditions surrounding him. He was never deceived. When the Pharisees sought to ensnare him, he detected at once the evil atmosphere of their thinking and ruled it out of his experience as an influence. He was untouched by their opposing mentalities just as light is untouched by darkness.

The Master did not claim the light of Christ only for himself. He said (John 8:12), "I am the light of the world." But he also declared (Matt. 5:14), "Ye are the light of the world." Whoever reflects the divine nature brings to the world the Christly light that pierces darkness. Abraham recognized this light within his consciousness, and he began mankind's search for the immortal city—God's infinitude. Jacob glimpsed the glow of reality when he wrestled until the dawn of the true concept of man. Moses' face shone when he caught the inner message of law and divine government. The Master struggled for light in Gethsemane in order to bring heaven within the knowledge of all men. Those who have discerned and reflected the illumination of Spirit tend this light as their cherished treasure; it assures them of their unity with God.

The Christian Scientist is provided with every truth needed to destroy material beliefs. If he lets the shadows of disease and sin darken his thought, he is not keeping his own light shining or maintaining a conscious sense of unity with Spirit. And he can blame no one but himself. Mrs. Eddy says in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 355), "Mental darkness is senseless error, neither intelligence nor power, and its victim is responsible for its supposititious presence."

We should watch our mental states in order to determine the condition of our health and our spiritual progress. Stubborn, negative states of thought evidence resistance to the Christ. It is right and normal to feel spiritual inspiration and freshness, to maintain the consciousness of joy and love. If these right states are lacking, we are either neglecting our work of spiritualizing thought or some external influence is touching us, an influence that needs to be dealt with.

Every ill in mortal experience is a dark shadow of mortal thought and nothing more, however substantial it may appear to physical sense. The star of Christian Science alone can pierce the darkness and destroy the false sense in which human ills dwell. Neither the problem nor the sense which embraces it is substance. Spirit is the only substance, and the light which rouses mankind from the mortal dream holds within itself the power to prove the non-existence of all that is unlike God.

The beam of Bethlehem's star foretold the full effulgence of divine Science—the star of Boston, the final revelation of Truth, destined to lead all men out of darkness into the light of reality. The knowledge of God's infinitude and of man's perfection as His spiritual emanation brings the light that is mantling the earth. Christmas is no longer a single day of festivity but an era in which the Christ is appearing in its universal and purifying power.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

THE MOTHER CHURCH FUND FOR ARMED SERVICES ACTIVITIES AND POSTWAR EMERGENCIES

The Fund opened in January, 1942, known as "The Mother Church Wartime Fund," is now designated "The Mother Church Fund for Armed Services Activities and Postwar Emergencies." As heretofore, this Fund will be drawn upon to meet the needs of Christian Scientists in the armed services; to aid those willing to rely wholly on Christian Science for healing in veterans' hospitals; to conduct Christian Science services, give treatments, and help young Christian Scientists to become adjusted to their military experience.

Large quantities of authorized literature continue to be distributed to service personnel and veterans and placed in chaplains' offices, libraries, hospitals, and on board ship. Service Editions of the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy are also supplied free of charge. Aid is also extended from this Fund to civilians needing material assistance because of emergencies resulting from war.

This Fund meets the salaries and expenses of Christian Science Ministers and other workers. The number of these workers is increasing; they serve in the United States, Canada, Alaska, Australia, Hawaii, Korea, and the Pacific islands, as well as in England, Germany, and France.

Last year approximately a quarter of a million dollars was expended by The Mother Church for this important work. Our deep appreciation goes to the Field for its loving support. The urgent need continues. We are confident that Christian Scientists will joyfully respond to the opportunity of maintaining and expanding these fruitful activities of our movement.

Contributions for this Fund will be gratefully received and should be sent to ROY GARRETT WATSON, Treasurer, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

SUPPORTING OUR HERALDS IN THEIR MISSION

In response to a widespread interest in the various editions of The Herald of Christian Science, the Editors are taking this opportunity to explain something of the purpose of the Heralds and the nature of their contents.

Our Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, who gave the name to each of our periodicals, lists them and indicates their mission in an item entitled "Something in a Name" in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany." Here she gives the mission of the Heralds, when she speaks of the German edition of the Herald, the only Herald published at that time. To quote (p. 353): "The third, Der Herold der Christian Science, to proclaim the universal activity and availability of Truth."

The Heralds, surmounting language barriers, are proclaiming "the universal activity and availability of Truth" in nine languages. There is also an edition in English Braille. Naturally, the various language editions—German, French, Scandinavian (Danish-Norwegian-Swedish), Dutch, and Spanish-Portuguese-Italian—are intended primarily for those parts of the Field where the languages of those editions are spoken, and the Heralds, therefore, can in no way replace, or be substituted for, The Christian Science Journal or the Christian Science Sentinel.

Our Heralds are unusual in their make-up, having the English opposite the translation. For this reason they are helping many who wish to learn English in order to be able to read our Leader's writings in the original language. The contents of each edition are selected with the thought of meeting the needs of the readers of that edition. A large portion of the material in the Heralds is reprinted from the Journal and the Sentinel. Occasionally religious articles are also reprinted from The Christian Science Monitor, and from time to time articles and editorials appear which have not previously been published. Articles and testimonies written originally in foreign languages are often included. Therefore the same articles do not appear in all the Heralds.

There are many ways in which the readers of our periodicals can support the Heralds in the fulfilling of their great mission. Some readers may wish to subscribe to them for themselves; others may wish to send subscriptions to individuals or to literature distribution committees of branch churches or societies where the Heralds meet a special need; and still others may prefer to put the amount they would pay for the subscriptions into the Donation Account of The Christian Science Publishing Society for this purpose.

The Journal, Sentinel, and Herald Editorial Department is always glad to answer any inquiry about the Heralds. However, subscriptions, subscription donations, and any questions relating to them should be sent to the Circulation Department of The Christian Science Publishing Society. Correspondence intended for either of these two departments should be addressed to the proper department in The Christian Science Publishing Society, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHER CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

One who has accepted the teachings of Christian Science as his way of life finds himself greatly blessed when he acknowledges this fact through membership in The Mother Church.

The requirements as set forth in the Manual of The Mother Church by Mary Baker Eddy should be carefully pondered by those considering membership before the application and the accompanying questionnaire are filled out.

Application blanks and any information concerning membership may be obtained at Christian Science Reading Rooms, from practitioners listed in The Christian Science Journal, or from clerks of branch churches and societies. Applications may also be obtained from GORDON V. COMER, Clerk, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

NOTES FROM THE PUBLISHING SOCIETY

CHILDREN'S PAMPHLET IN GERMAN

In order that the children in German-speaking countries may be able to read articles in their own language, we have now published a German translation of the illustrated pamphlet, "The House with the Colored Windows." The English and German texts are given on each page.

This pamphlet is available in three editions: English-German, English-French, and in English only. Each edition, 50 cents.

VISITORS WELCOME

CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.—Mrs. Eddy's late residence at 400 Beacon Street contains an exhibit room on the second floor where items tracing the growth of the movement from its earliest days to the present are displayed. This house is open daily, except Sunday, from 1 to 5 p.m. During the months of December, January, February, and March the hours are from 12.30 to 4 p.m. It is closed on all holidays with the exception of April 19, May 30, June 17, and October 12. When these dates fall on a Sunday, the house is closed on Sunday and open on the Monday observed as the holiday. Cards of admission required, obtainable at Administration Building, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston, Monday through Saturday.

LYNN, MASS.—The former home of Mary Baker Eddy at 12 Broad Street is open to visitors daily, except Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. During the months of December, January, and February the hours are from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. It is closed on all holidays with the exception of April 19, May 30, June 17, and October 12. When these dates fall on a Sunday, the house is closed on Sunday and open on the Monday observed as the holiday. This house, including the little attic room where Mrs. Eddy completed her work on the first manuscript of "Science and Health," has been carefully restored to present the highest possible point of historical accuracy.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Exhibit Hall on the second floor of the Christian Science Building, 1601 I (Eye) Street, N.W., is open free to the public daily, including holidays, Monday through Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. On Thanksgiving Day, Christmas, and New Year's Day the hours are the same as on Sunday. Among the exhibits providing glimpses of the origin, scope, and healing ministry of Christian Science are the Vitaramas showing the world-wide activities of the Christian Science movement and the "listening chairs" in which visitors may sit and hear selected recordings not only in English, but in French, German, and Spanish.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PERIODICALS

The following periodicals were founded by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, and are published by The Christian Science Publishing Society, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts, U. S. A.:

The Christian Science Journal: Monthly in English; $4.50 a year, $2.25 six months, 40c a copy.

Christian Science Sentinel: Weekly in English; $4.50 a year, $2.25 six months, 15c a copy.

The Herald of Christian Science: Editions published monthly, $2 a year, 20c a copy: French and German. Editions published quarterly, $1 a year, 25c a copy: Dutch, Scandinavian (Danish, Norwegian, Swedish), Spanish-Portuguese-Italian, and English-Braille, Grade Two.

Christian Science Quarterly: Quarterly in English, Danish, Dutch, French, German, Norwegian, Spanish, Swedish; $1.40 a year, 35c a copy. English edition is also available in vest-pocket size, $1.40 a year, 35c a copy; Readers' size, $1.65 a year, 45c a copy; in English-Braille, Grade Two, $2.50 a year (12 issues), 25c a copy.

The Christian Science Monitor: Daily, except Sundays and holidays, in English (with religious article usually in one or two of fourteen different translations); $16 a year; $8 six months, 5c a copy.

Testimonies of Christian Science Healing

It is with humility and gratitude that I submit proof of the efficacy of Christian Science. My first experience with this religion came by way of a physical healing when I was a lad of sixteen. My parents became concerned about the general run-down condition of my health and decided on a physical examination. Our kind family physician declared my trouble to be incipient tuberculosis and sent me to bed for three months.

At that time there were no students of Christian Science in our home, but my mother had a copy of the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. She asked me to read it, and I read this beloved textbook from cover to cover.

Long before the prescribed three months were ended, I knew that I was healed. My weight increased so rapidly and I grew so fast that I outgrew all my clothes. My mother was convinced that I must be healed, but she insisted on another examination by our physician. His examination this time proved to everyone's satisfaction that there was no tuberculosis present. This healing took place twenty-three years ago, and there has never been a recurrence of the disease.

It was not until some years later, however, that I became a conscientious student of Christian Science. I had become addicted to alcohol and tobacco, and Christian Science, like the angel Michael, came to my aid. I can recall that all through those stormy years after my first healing, I remembered "the scientific statement of being," found on page 468 of our textbook. I know that it was the abiding presence of this angel thought that led me in my extremity to seek a Christian Science practitioner.

This practitioner gently turned my thought away from self. During my first visit with her she read the following sentence from "Miscellaneous Writings" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 15): "What a faith-lighted thought is this! that mortals can lay off the 'old man,' until man is found to be the image of the infinite good that we name God, and the fulness of the stature of man in Christ appears." In a short while I was completely free from the false appetite for alcohol and tobacco.

This experience drew me so close to God that there has been no turning back. Through the study and application of Christian Science I have been healed of arthritis, nervous indigestion, headaches, and pneumonia. For the privilege of membership in The Mother Church and for class instruction, I am most grateful. I am also grateful for membership in a branch church, which has given me the blessed opportunity to serve God and my fellow man. Words can never adequately express my gratitude to God for Christ Jesus, our Saviour, and for our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy.—Andrew Flint Frary, Oakland, California.

[Original testimony in German]

"MAN's extremity is God's opportunity." The truth of this saying has often been proved to me. As a child I enjoyed reading the Bible, and my father once said to me: "There is a God, but the church and the schools do not teach us the right way to Him. There is something missing." It was not until years later that I learned to pray aright.

Through a dear friend, I found my way to Christian Science. I was given a copy of The Herald of Christian Science (German Edition), and despite my initial skepticism, I studied eagerly. The very first article I read made an appeal to my inner-most nature. I remembered my father's words, for I knew that in this article I had discovered at last the "something missing." I had found the way to God through the healing Christ I had so long sought.

A practitioner lent me the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. When I reached home I read until far into the night without being tired. The next morning I arose very early and felt as though I were newborn. I had been healed of a dull pain in my head, and fear of the future had disappeared. My husband then became interested also in this wonderful teaching of Christian Science. He studied the textbook and was healed of dropsy.

Through lack of caution, I suffered an accident in 1938. While tidying my son's room, I started to put away a pistol used for sounding alarms. The pistol went off, and the charge exploded in my face. My eyes were particularly affected. I repeated aloud "the scientific statement of being" given on page 468 of the textbook. When my son returned home, he cleansed my face and advised me to call a doctor; he said that otherwise I might lose my eyesight. I rejected material aid and asked my son to read me the Lesson-Sermon for that week in the Christian Science Quarterly. After a short time I opened my eyes. When I could not see anything, I was terrified, for I was afraid I might be going blind.

However, I put all my confidence in the healing power of God. This passage from the Bible came to my thought (Prov. 20: 12): "The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them." I thanked God for the knowledge that vision is a faculty of Soul, which cannot be harmed or destroyed. When I again opened my eyes I could recognize the outline of things around me. I was filled with deep gratitude, for I knew that I was healed. The light became brighter, and the next morning I was able to carry out my duties as First Reader at our church service.

Through the understanding and application of the teachings of Christian Science, inharmonious conditions in various forms have been overcome in my family throughout the years. Colds, measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria, whooping cough, and injuries due to accidents have all been healed.

When my husband passed on, I was able with God's help to solve the problem of supply. Words are inadequate to express my great gratitude for the purpose Christian Science has given to my life. I am grateful for membership in The Mother Church and for the privilege of having had class instruction.

Continually I am striving humbly to hold the hand of God and to point out to seekers of the truth the way of Christ, Truth. Jesus said (John 8:31, 32), "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

I am grateful to our revered Leader, Mrs. Eddy, who through her discovery has made the Bible a light which goes before mankind to illumine the way from the material to the spiritual concept of being. —(Mrs.) Hedwig Höhn, Coburg, Bavaria, Germany.

It is the deep gratitude I have for Christian Science that prompts me to tell of the healing which brought me into its study. This was a healing of lack. I was in one of our large cities and was without employment and without funds during the depression. When my efforts to obtain employment were of no avail, a friend recommended that I try Christian Science. I asked help of a practitioner and was told that man is continually employed reflecting the qualities of God.

I had always had sufficient income up to this time and had helped others financially when they were in need. Now I cried out to God and asked why I was experiencing financial difficulty. Then the thought came to me that I had great resentment toward those whom I had helped during their financial difficulties but who now did not offer to help me by at least reimbursing me in some way for the help given them. Suddenly this thought came to me: "It was not your good that was given them; it was God's."

Just at this particular moment a friend called saying he had a position for me in another large city. I took it, and as I strove to put into practice the teachings of Christian Science, this position prepared me for a better one, which was most harmonious and far beyond my expectations in remuneration.

Shortly after I accepted the latter position, however, all employees were told they might have to forgo at least one month's salary because the business was practically insolvent. I reasoned that I had obtained the position through divine guidance and that I needed to discipline my thought regarding business. The truth became clear to me that it is not God's will for us to work under hardships and to be burdened with lack and that we must rely solely upon God, never on persons, for supply. Within a very short time the business increased in volume, and no one had to forgo his salary at any time. Later I was made an officer of the organization with a substantial increase in salary and given a share in the profits.

I should like to tell of another experience I had while in this employ but which took place before I had learned of the financial difficulties of the business. One day I overheard the employees making plans for the organization's annual fall picnic and trying to decide as to the amount of liquor they should take along. I became greatly disturbed, because I had no desire to attend the kind of picnic it promised to be; and I thought I would not be welcome in the organization when it was learned I did not partake of alcoholic beverages. In reading a religious article, entitled "Prepare to Meet Good," in a copy of The Christian Science Monitor, I saw it was necessary that I change my thinking and prepare to meet God, good, by letting Truth control my thinking and by becoming conscious of God's laws of harmony, with which evil cannot interfere. Mrs. Eddy writes (Science and Health, p. 471), "God is infinite, therefore ever present, and there is no other power nor presence."

The picnic lasted from noon until midnight, and it was not until after I had returned home and was thinking of the good time we had enjoyed that I realized no liquor had been served. Although it had been the practice to serve liquor in the office to customers, to my knowledge no liquor was served there during the five years of my employment with this organization.

I am grateful for many proofs of God's loving care and healing power as well as for membership in The Mother Church and a branch church and for class instruction. —(Mrs.) Marie Easton Reid, Maryville, Tennessee.

WORDS cannot express the gratitude I feel for Christian Science and for Mary Baker Eddy, our beloved Leader, who gave us this wonderful religion.

A healing that has taught me many treasured lessons was one which a small child in our family experienced. While visiting his grandparents in another city, he manifested a condition of ivy poisoning. One of the grandparents, who was not a Christian Scientist, tried different medicines and treatments for the child, but without success.

When the child returned to our home I was told of what had occurred and of the difficult time experienced in trying to get rid of the poisoning. I was not alarmed, for I realized that Christian Science treatment is certain and effectual. God does not make a plant that can cause one of His little ones to suffer. With my realization of this truth, the condition disappeared almost immediately. The next year the child again showed the evidence of ivy poisoning. I worked as we are taught in Christian Science, but the healing was not immediate. Then, as I prayed to rise above the false testimony, this thought came to me clearly: "Who is telling you that the child has ivy poisoning? Is God telling you that about His child?" I was aroused immediately to see that there was nothing wrong with the child made in God's image and that there was no one to know a wrong condition because God is Mind, and He is All-in-all. The evidence of poisoning then disappeared.

In talking to this child some months later, I mentioned the healing just related. Though it was just a few days before Christmas, and he could not possibly have come in contact with poison ivy, his face began to manifest the symptoms of ivy poisoning. I prayed faithfully, affirming his perfection as a child of God and denying that he or I could be deluded into believing that poisoning was any part of him. However, the condition became much worse; so I called upon a Christian Science practitioner for help.

In telling her about the child I mentioned that the grandparents were coming for Christmas and that I feared it would be more difficult for me to work in Christian Science as one grandparent was rather opposed to this religion. The practitioner immediately replied, "Let nothing come into your consciousness regarding anyone but your concept of the Christ." Those words changed my thought immediately. I knew that though I had been preparing for the Christmas holiday, I had not been preparing my consciousness to let the Christ come in. I sat down and commenced to study with great joy and gratitude the many messages on Christmas that Mrs. Eddy gives us in her writings. I realized that my consciousness was, in reality, all the house I had. In our Leader's spiritual interpretation of the twenty-third Psalm we read (Science and Health, p. 578), "And I will dwell in the house [the consciousness] of [LOVE] for ever."

When the grandparents arrived in the afternoon, the child's face was normal. The fear that I had entertained was gone, and a more loving relationship was established. This healing occurred about four years ago and has been permanent.

For all the many blessings that Christian Science has brought to my family and me, I can never be thankful enough. I have been healed of the need for wearing glasses. In the past eight years, as far as I can recall, I have not had one new cavity in my teeth, although until that time, I had several cavities a year. Smoking and social drinking were overcome when I seriously desired to become a member of the Church of Christ, Scientist. Although I had suffered much from colds, influenza, and pneumonia from the time I was a small child, my freedom from these conditions has been pronounced. So-called children's diseases have disappeared almost instantly when the truth we are taught in Christian Science was applied, and a lovely home has been found for our family several times in the face of wartime housing shortages and a small income. Many of these healings were the result of my own application of Christian Science.

Our first child was born half an hour after a practitioner was called, although the obstetrician had said the baby was in the wrong position and would not be able to be delivered for twenty-four hours. The last two children were born under Christian Science treatment. Both births were without anesthetic or medication of any kind and were painless. Each time I was up in one day, feeling rested and strong. Within a week I took complete charge of the children and resumed the household duties without assistance.

For an ever-increasing understanding of God and of man's relationship to Him, for Christ Jesus, for our inspired Leader, and for class instruction, I am indeed grateful.—(Mrs.) Helen Moore Elder, Louisville, Kentucky.

It is with great joy that I testify to the healing power of Christian Science. It found me at a time of great unhappiness and ill-health. I was suffering from mental depression said to be inherited from my father and grandmother and was taking medicine almost daily for at least three different complaints. All these conditions have been healed in Christian Science as my concept of God and man has been changed and as I have grown in some small degree to understand divine Love to be my only parent. I can truthfully say with the Psalmist (Ps. 18:16), "He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters."

Several years ago an internal displacement developed. I suffered much pain and discomfort, and my physical activity was greatly impeded. While I never doubted that Christian Science heals, I often doubted that I had sufficient courage or understanding to prove this fact.

During this period I had a great deal of help at different times from practitioners, to whom I am grateful. I am especially grateful for the loving and patient work of one practitioner; she encouraged me to place complete reliance on Truth and assured me again and again that such reliance must inevitably be rewarded by victory. This practitioner showed me that I was suffering not from the physical condition, but from a false belief which had never touched my real being, since in reality I had never for a moment ceased to express the perfection inherent in the image and likeness of God.

I am grateful that I was encouraged to be as active as possible during this time and to carry on with church work and later with a part-time position. It was often necessary for me to take a taxi, and when the argument came that I could not afford this expense, I saw clearly that since I was about my Father's business, He would provide me with the necessary means. And He did, for supply came in abundance and has continued to do so.

At a time when I felt greatly discouraged, the practitioner reminded me of Mrs. Eddy's love for her followers, and a warm feeling of being loved and cared for poured over me. I saw too that I had the support of students of Science all over the world who were affirming that in Christian Science nothing is incurable. This thought, which gave me a sense of being part of the great family of God, meant much to me, for I had no family of my own. Although it was still some time before the healing came, I am confident that at that moment the condition began to yield.

I should also like to express gratitude for the great joy of teaching in a Christian Science Sunday School. This activity has given me a fuller appreciation of the Manual of The Mother Church by Mrs. Eddy and has taught me to rely upon its protecting and sustaining power. Early in my study I came in touch with a Christian Science teacher, who implanted in my consciousness a deep love for Mrs. Eddy and The Mother Church and from whom I later received class instruction. I can truthfully say that during the past twenty years that love has grown stronger with each passing year, and I count membership in The Mother Church one of my most priceless possessions. As each year goes by, I am more grateful to Mrs. Eddy for the unselfed love which impelled her to share with humanity her priceless revelation of the practicability of the teachings of our Master, Christ Jesus.—(Miss) Evelyn M. Pinnell, London, England.

WHILE reading the textbook, Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy, a copy of which was loaned to me by my sister-in-law, I realized that smoking is a form of bondage, and I was freed from the temptation to indulge in it. This first contact with Christian Science also freed me from prejudice against it, and two years later I was ready to turn completely to Science for healing when I was suffering from a severe skin irritation. After reading the textbook for two weeks I realized I was free, but I did not know when this healing had taken place.

Since then I have been freed from the bane of frequent and severe headaches, the tendency to take cold easily, and a sense of annoyance, which was often followed by attacks of a skin disease. A broken or dislocated toe was healed in a few hours with a practitioner's help. My love goes out to the sister-in-law I have mentioned for introducing me to Christian Science and for her years of consecration to good.

Our home has become a symbol to me of God's all-inclusive love, operating through the practice of Christian Science to unify, correct, and sustain every right activity. Happier relationships have gone hand in hand with the overcoming of many physical difficulties that had beset me before my life began anew in Christian Science.

My relationship with one of our children was difficult over a period of years. When I finally determined to accord him dignity and worth and to show him I would love him no matter how trying mortal mind represented him to be, there was noticeable improvement, and he became courteous, loving, and even in disposition. Several times I had specific help from a practitioner. The exercise of patience in the working out of this problem has blessed me with more assurance of the power of Love.

Our youngest son was healed of the symptoms of polio in five days. When my prayerful work did not meet the symptoms, I asked a Christian Science practitioner for help. That night the boy slept well, and by the next afternoon he was playing outside, but he continued to limp. Though I knew God had helped him, yet I was fearful of an aftereffect.

The thought came to me, "All there is to the condition is what you are making of it by watching for it." I wondered how I could possibly turn completely away, but I resolved to be obedient and try. Several days later the realization came that I had not thought of the difficulty again since that moment, and I realized too that the boy no longer limped. This experience has been a powerful support at times when assurance was specially needed. My gratitude for the loving one who helped is great. Many times she has turned my thought toward the perfection of man in God's likeness.

One incident which impressed me occurred during an epidemic of mumps. When I realized that our daughter was manifesting symptoms of this disease, I was taken with fear. I picked up the telephone to call for help, but felt that I could not be guided as to whom to call while I felt so fearful. Remembering that the Bible says (I John 4:18), "Perfect love casteth out fear," I went on with supper while thinking of God's love and of His care for all. In about twenty minutes I felt such an uplifted sense that I thought surely I could do the necessary prayerful work myself.

These words of a hymn came to me (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 88): "Gracious Spirit, dwell with me," and I looked up the rest of the words of the hymn. Then I went to see if our daughter needed anything. As I leaned over her bed, she roused from a stupor of several hours and said, "I know a little girl who loves God, and error just popped right out of her."

She then ate, jumped out of bed, and played with her brothers until bedtime. By noon of the next day all the swelling had vanished. There have been many occasions when I have found my own understanding of Truth sufficient when tried, but this instance was outstanding, because it proved so clearly that when fear is overcome, disease has no support.

For many years my husband was not a student of Christian Science, but he was generous in letting me trust Christian Science for my own help and for that of the children. Now, having found its value for himself, he is an earnest student and enjoys the church services, the literature, and the radio and television programs as well as the daily study of the Lesson-Sermons in the Christian Science Quarterly, which continually unfold the greatness of God's goodness. — (Mrs.) Betty Kirk Baker, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

BEFORE I found Christian Science, a growth appeared on my right ear, and I had it removed through surgery. It was not long before the growth reappeared. It grew larger and at times became alarming. I realized that it was time for me to do something about it. The suggestion that I again try surgery occurred to me, but that suggestion was frightening. I did not want a medical diagnosis, because I feared what it might disclose.

At this point I asked for help from a Christian Science practitioner. I explained to her that the growth itself did not bother me nearly so much as what I thought others saw and thought. She said to me, "You must know that you are 'hid with Christ in God.'"

Her meaning became clear to me when I read in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 325): "In Colossians (iii. 4) Paul writes: 'When Christ, who is our life, shall appear [be manifested], then shall ye also appear [be manifested] with him in glory.' When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image. The absolute meaning of the apostolic words is this: Then shall man be found, in His likeness, perfect as the Father, indestructible in Life, 'hid with Christ in God,'—with Truth in divine Love, where human sense hath not seen man." The unfoldment which came to me in the repeated pondering of that statement was: "All that man can know of man or see in man is what God knows and sees. That is perfection." That was the beginning of the healing of the growth on my ear.

Some time later my wife and I had occasion to go to Boston, Massachusetts, on a business trip, and our plans included a Wednesday evening testimony meeting in The Mother Church. That was a glorious experience. We were so uplifted that we felt as though we were walking on air. In the foyer of the Church we talked with a man to whom we were anxious to speak. After our exchange of greetings, he asked, "What healings or interesting experiences have you had in Christian Science?"

My answer was, "None, that I can recall just now, but I am going to have one."

"What do you mean by saying, 'I am going to have one'?" he asked. "You are perfect now, and you know it."

My wife and I were speechless. I felt that I had been reproved, and I did not like it.

Later, however, those words of reproof became words of love. The spiritual status of man as God's child became clearer. I saw that man, God's image and likeness, is perfect now, not shall be, and I lost sight of the imperfect mortal who had seemed so real to me for so long. It was only a very short time until the growth on my ear disintegrated and disappeared completely. Not long afterward my wife and I had class instruction from the man whose words had helped to awaken me to my freedom.

In Luke we read concerning Jesus (17: 20), "When he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation." I learned that the truth about man does not come from observing matter or by harboring and protecting imperfection, but it comes by our replacing with the truth the lie concerning man.

The blessings I have received through application of the truths learned in Christian Science are many. I am grateful to Christ Jesus, the Way-shower, and to Mary Baker Eddy, our beloved Leader, through whose inspiration and untiring efforts we have this practical religion. Also I am grateful to the practitioners who have given me courage to remain firm. Membership in The Mother Church and a branch church and class instruction are further reasons for my gratitude.

"THY word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Ps. 119:105). I am grateful that at a time of great physical distress, which led to financial difficulties as well, the light of truth in Christian Science was presented to me and that I finally accepted it.

As a child, taught by earnest Christian parents, I learned to love God. In my early teens I had the experience of conversion at a revival meeting, and I soon joined the orthodox church of my parents. But I never felt entirely satisfied with my religious experience. I read the Bible diligently, but found much that I did not understand. And I promised myself that sometime I would buy the best Bible commentary ever written and study it thoroughly.

While at a university during the influenza epidemic at the time of the First World War, I contracted a severe case of the disease. When the doctors at the infirmary could not check the fever and thought I was going to pass on, they sent for my brother. He had become a Christian Scientist, but that fact never entered my mind, although it was to mean much to me. When he left my room after only a few minutes' visit, the fever had broken.

Part of the time during my convalescence I was in a home where there was a copy of the textbook, Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy. I read the chapter on Prayer and realized that there was a depth to prayer I had never sounded. In answer to my desire to own a copy of Science and Health, in a few days I received a sum of money from a totally unexpected source, and I purchased the textbook. But I was not yet ready to accept the truth that present-day spiritual healing is part of God's plan, and I laid the book aside.

Meanwhile financial difficulties were piling up; a second attack of influenza left me weaker than before, and I was much distressed. My brother sent me some copies of the Christian Science Sentinel. I read them and became attracted by the testimonies of healing. They were beautiful, and I had to admit that they must be true. Also the chapter on Prayer from Science and Health continually came to my mind.

Then one day I realized that God was guiding me to accept Christian Science, and I was willing to follow His guidance. Not many days later the fact that God is able and willing to heal today came to my consciousness with such clarity that it was very simple to accept this religion, and I was instantaneously healed. With rejoicing I again took up Science and Health, and I have loved and studied it ever since. It has proved to be immeasurably more than the commentary I had once planned to study, for I have found it to be the final revelation of God to man. I learned to appreciate Mrs. Eddy and to understand her place in the divine plan.

Christian Science has brought me untold blessings, leading me out of fear, lack, and an intense feeling of inferiority, into a life of confidence and service. Inharmony and physical discord have been healed. Wonderful protection has been experienced in accidents and in the prevention of accidents. I am grateful for membership in The Mother Church and in a Christian Science Society, where I have the opportunity to serve our Cause, and for class instruction, which greatly clarified and enlarged my understanding of Christian Science. For all that this Science has done and is doing for all the world, I am sincerely grateful.—(Mrs.) Lottie Graf Stefferud, Middleton, Wisconsin.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE has brought so many blessings into my life and into our home that I wish to thank God through the means of our periodicals.

Although my human father passed on before I was born, all sense of having been deprived of a father's love was healed when I learned in Christian Science that God is the only Father of all. This realization has meant a great deal to me, for it removed a feeling of incompleteness. Mary Baker Eddy, our beloved Leader, says in the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 515), "Man is the family name for all ideas,—the sons and daughters of God."

Of all the blessings I have received for many years through Christian Science, I count an understanding of the Bible as one of the greatest. It was unlocked for me through Science and Health. In this textbook Mrs. Eddy states (p. 547): "The Scriptures are very sacred. Our aim must be to have them understood spiritually, for only by this understanding can truth be gained." As a child I attended an orthodox Sunday School and there learned to love the Lord's Prayer, but it was not until I took up the study of Christian Science that I learned to cherish the Bible and make it a daily study.

One of the first healings I had in Christian Science was that of ptomaine poisoning. My family, who were not students of this Science, lovingly coaxed me to try material remedies, but I had seen Christian Science work for me in bringing about a right sense of companionship; so I trusted God to deliver me. The healing came with this uplifting thought from the Scriptures (Matt. 15:11): "Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man."

My gratitude for a more recent healing is unbounded. For a while the outlook was dark, but the sunlight of Truth dispelled the gloom and taught me to lean more and more on God. A distressing condition in my throat caused me much coughing, and twice I had to struggle to keep from choking. I am most grateful for the help of a Christian Science practitioner during this experience. These words from one of our Leader's hymns kept coming to my thought persistently (Poems, p. 4), "O gentle presence, peace and joy and power." The word "gentle" repeated itself over and over to my thought and brought a great sense of peace and of the smooth outflow of good, which I did not have to struggle to get, but which was mine as naturally as the morning sunshine.

As I continue my study of Christian Science, I gain an ever-increasing realization of the deep debt of gratitude I owe to our Leader for revealing the truth to this age and for giving us the textbook. I find the study of this book more important each day, and she tells us therein (p. 559): "Read this book from beginning to end. Study it, ponder it."

I am grateful indeed for membership in The Mother Church and in a branch church and for class instruction.—(Mrs.) Louise E. Hunley, Los Angeles, California.

OVER thirty years ago Christian Science was brought to me by a young woman living in the same apartment building in which I lived. I was a very sick woman, having suffered for several years, and I was frightened by the prospect of a major operation. In addition, I was grieving over the passing of my mother.

The young woman came on a neighborly call and did not mention Christian Science.

During the visit, however, I felt a sense of great peace, and I finally asked her, "Are you a Christian Scientist?" She said she was. I told her of the peace she had brought, and I asked her to tell me more about her religion. She said she would bring some literature.

She brought some copies of the Journal and of the Christian Science Sentinel, and I read all the wonderful healings related in them. When I returned them I asked her many questions. She was very patient, sweet, and helpful in answering my questions. She let me have "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy and told me that spiritual understanding would come to me as I read it. After reading the blessed truths, I knew I must have a copy of Science and Health of my own, and I have never been without one since.

I did not have another attack until about three weeks later. Then I opened the Journal to the directory of Christian Science practitioners and called a practitioner in my city. She asked me to come to see her at noon. I felt sure I could not go, because it was raining, and I felt in no condition to go so far. Regardless of these arguments, I found myself ringing the practitioner's doorbell at noon. We had a pleasant visit, and I felt such a spiritual blessing that I was reluctant to leave.

Later that day I felt that all was well and that Love was all around. The next day was Sunday. On awakening, I found that the sickness had gone. A little surprised, I called the practitioner, and she joyously said, "Dear, you are healed." And indeed I was. I went to church glorifying God. In great humility I prayed, "Thank You, God." Then I knew how the woman felt who, as we read in the Bible, in the eighth chapter of Luke, touched the hem of Jesus' robe and was healed after twelve years of suffering.

I have had many beautiful demonstrations of God's unfailing answer to our prayers. After an injury to my foot, for a moment I could not move. The suggestion of a broken bone came to me, but I declared, "There can be no imperfection in God's presence." I asked for Christian Science help, and the next morning I was completely healed.

While walking through a dark hall, I fell into a floor furnace from which the grating had been removed for repair. One foot was caught in the pipes. A woman in the house tried to pull me up, but I asked her to wait. I knew that no part of man could be harmed. After a moment or two I felt my foot loosen, and I was able to pull it out. The woman who witnessed the fall was not a Christian Scientist and expressed consternation because of my age. Some workmen wanted to take me to a hospital, but I refused and had the woman call a practitioner, who came immediately. I was healed while the practitioner sat by me and worked. There was no more trouble with my leg.

I am ever so grateful for membership in The Mother Church and one of its branches and for class instruction.—(Mrs.) Mary D. Seale, Hammond, Louisiana.

WE read in Psalms (94:17), "Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence." How grateful I am for all the inspiration and guidance I have received through the study of Christian Science!

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, says in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 258), "The human capacities are enlarged and perfected in proportion as humanity gains the true conception of man and God." When I have put God first and desired a greater understanding of Him above all else, the way has opened up for me under almost impossible circumstances. I am a singer, and step by step my music studies were paid for, and my needs were all met as I went forward, trusting God and declaring that what I knew of Him was my substance.

Auditions and my work on the stage have gone ahead with freedom and success on occasions when at first I could not even speak because of a cold or a sore throat. I knew that the voice of God, which has countless manifestations, is spiritual, strong, free, and beautiful. I knew also that man is a witness to all the qualities of Soul. This knowledge always brought healing.

The longing for popularity and applause has been stilled and replaced with the knowledge that the greatest satisfaction comes from pleasing God and glorifying Him in all our tasks. This recognition has relieved the frustrations and inhibitions which confront human ambition. My love of harmony and beauty met with much disillusionment when I sought them only through what mortal mind has to offer, but Christian Science has taught me that man consciously expresses the beauty and perfection of Soul. This understanding satisfied and sustained me, and it has finally led to the joy of using my talents in branch church work.

While traveling in theatrical work, I was most grateful for the uniformity of the services in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world. The Lesson-Sermons in the Christian Science Quarterly, the Wednesday testimony meetings, the periodicals, and the Reading Rooms—all provisions made by our Leader, Mrs. Eddy, to ensure the progress of her Cause and the salvation of mankind—have been great blessings to me.

I suffered a good deal from a sense of loneliness and incompleteness as long as I allowed the demands of my work and the arguments of wrong companionship to rule my life. When I made a steadfast and sincere effort to place myself in a position where church work would be foremost and when I finally accepted the fact that all my allegiance, thoughts, and efforts belong to God, Principle, I found a companion who was upright, loving, and true.

I feel that the greatest evidence of God's watchful, loving care for me was the guidance He gave to take class instruction in Christian Science. This step brought new purpose and meaning into my experience, and it has proved to be a constant and continuous unfoldment of good. I have found and expressed more order and stability in my everyday life. My thinking has been purified, and the traits of a so-called artistic temperament have been subdued. When I have turned to God as my Mind, my decisions and actions have expressed more maturity, poise, and freedom from emotionalism.

A healing of anemia and low blood pressure was the culmination of a long struggle. The joy I found in strength and freedom regained was great, but my deepest gratitude has been for the lessons learned. My greatest foes were grief over past mistakes and resentment of wrongs that I felt had been done to me. Little by little I learned that the faults I saw in others could never be unseen or forgiven until I had completely cast them out of myself. Only as this was done could I be assured that error had no history, no reality, no effects. I also gained a higher sense of individuality, including only right ideas. With this unfoldment, all symptoms completely disappeared and never returned.

For all the good that has come to me, I can only thank God for His mercy, justice, and kindness.—(Mrs.) Gene Balmer Demers, Chicago, Illinois.

WORDS can never express my gratitude and joy that God led me to the study of our wonderful, practical religion. I can say in the words of one of our hymns (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 64), "My heart is singing: I have found the way."

All my life I had been searching for an answer to the many questions that puzzled me concerning life. Especially did I long to really know God. I was in and out of hospitals and having medical help constantly. Life appeared to hold little in store for me, and I became discouraged and despondent. After I had read completely four times Science and Health by Mary Baker Eddy, I knew my search to find God was over. I realized that God is Spirit and that we, His children, created in His image and likeness, are really spiritual. This awakening has brought me untold blessings and peace of mind.

My first healing was that of a nervous breakdown. Much fear had to be overcome, but as I continued my study of the Bible and the textbook and applied their teachings, I gained ground daily. These lines from the textbook were of immeasurable help to me (p. 495): "When the illusion of sickness or sin tempts you, cling steadfastly to God and His idea. Allow nothing but His likeness to abide in your thought. Let neither fear nor doubt overshadow your clear sense and calm trust, that the recognition of life harmonious—as Life eternally is—can destroy any painful sense of, or belief in, that which Life is not." And this statement from the Bible was also very helpful (II Tim. 1:7): "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." What joy was mine when I could lay my head on the pillow and sleep!

Another healing that greatly inspired me was the discarding of glasses that I had worn for over twenty years. I read Mrs. Eddy's definition of "eyes," given in the textbook, which reads in part (p. 586), "Spiritual discernment,—not material but mental." This definition helped me to realize that all of man's faculties are God-bestowed and cannot be impaired or lost.

Other healings I had were those of constipation, hemorrhoids, arthritis, gall bladder trouble, and felons. For every means which our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, has provided to help us to climb the ladder from sense to Soul, for the blessed experience of class instruction, and for the loving practitioners, who are doing so much to alleviate the suffering in the world, I am deeply and humbly grateful.

My gratitude to our revered Leader grows with every passing day. To serve our great Cause is my cherished desire. My fervent prayer each day is that I may let my light so shine that others will find in Christian Science the road to health, happiness, and freedom. — (Mrs.) Cordelia Camille Wolff, Detroit, Michigan.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING CARDS LISTED IN THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE JOURNAL AND HERALDS

BRANCH CHURCHES

When members of The Mother Church in a community believe the time has come for the organization of a Christian Science Society, or a branch Church of Christ, Scientist, in accordance with Article XXIII, Sections 6 and 7, of the Manual of The Mother Church, they should write for information to The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Department of Branches and Practitioners, in Boston, Massachusetts.

PRACTITIONERS AND NURSES

The Christian Science Publishing Society accepts for listing in the Christian Science periodicals only the cards of practitioners and nurses who have first been approved by the Board of Directors of The Mother Church. Following this approval a statement of the amount due for the publication of the cards is sent by the Publishing Society.

Applications for cards should be sent to The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Department of Branches and Practitioners, 107 Falmouth Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

Practitioners listed in The Herald of Christian Science published in Dutch, French, German, Scandinavian, and Spanish-Portuguese-Italian editions are required to know the English language sufficiently well to enable them to read the writings of Mary Baker Eddy understandingly, as well as to read, write, and speak the language of the Herald in which their card appears.

If a practitioner will not be available at his address for two months or longer, he should request the Publishing Society to insert the words "for mail only" or request the temporary removal of his card. Nurses listed in the Journal should maintain addresses through which mail will reach them promptly.

Practitioners should promptly notify the Publishing Society of any change of address. As the names published must appear in the same form as on the records of The Mother Church, notice of any change of name should be sent to the Clerk of The Mother Church.

Cards may be removed upon the request of the practitioner or the vote of The Christian Science Board of Directors (Manual of The Mother Church, Article XXV, Section 9), and in such cases, the money due for the unexpired term will be refunded by The Christian Science Publishing Society.

CLERKS

The Christian Science Publishing Society should have an accurate record of the name and address of the clerk duly elected to office in each church and society. All communications from a church or society should be officially signed by its clerk. The name and address of a newly appointed clerk should be forwarded without delay by the retiring clerk.

READING ROOMS

When two or more churches unite in maintaining a Reading Room, a separate card may be published for the Reading Room notice if desired. In all other cases the Reading Room notice is a part of the church card and should give the address and the hours when the rooms are regularly open to the public with an attendant in charge. Reading Rooms are closed on Sundays and holidays unless definite hours for these days are given.

CHARGES AND CHANGES

The annual charges for cards in The Christian Science Journal, payable in advance, are $18.00 for each line, or fraction thereof, for church and society cards; $12.00 for college and university cards; $12.00 for each line, or fraction thereof, for practitioners' cards, and $6.00 for each line, or fraction thereof, for nurses' cards. The charge for practitioners' and nurses' cards in Le Héraut or Der Herold is $2.00 for each line, in the Scandinavian, Dutch, and Spanish-Portuguese-Italian Heralds $1.00 for each line. Before the termination of the card, a statement of the amount due for continued publication is mailed.

A charge of 50 cents is made to cover expense incurred in making any change in a card, except at the time of renewal. The remittance should accompany the request for a change, which request should reach the Publishing Society two months before the date of the issue in which the change is desired.

Correspondence referring to changes and renewal payments for cards should be sent to The Christian Science Publishing Society, One Norway Street, Boston 15, Massachusetts.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PRACTITIONERS AND TEACHERS

The practitioners whose cards appear in these columns are members of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and are amenable to its By-Laws. They have presented testimony to The Christian Science Board of Directors of The Mother Church showing that they are qualified as practitioners of Christian Science.

The letters C. S. after a practitioner's name designate one who has had class instruction from an authorized teacher of Christian Science. The letters C. S. B. indicate that the practitioner has been taught by Mrs. Eddy or has taken a course at the Massachusetts Metaphysical College or in the Christian Science Board of Education.

The names of those who are authorized teachers of Christian Science are followed by the word "teacher." They may teach one class of not more than thirty pupils in each calendar year. The teaching of Christian Science is governed by the Church Manual of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, especially by Articles XXVI and XXVII (pages 83-87).

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NURSES

The nurses whose cards appear in these columns are members of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, U. S. A., and they are amenable to its discipline. It is expected that nurses will read Instructions on page 1 of this periodical.

The letters C.S. after a nurse's name designate one who has had class instruction from an authorized teacher of Christian Science.

The asterisk (*) is used to designate those who have completed the course of training for Christian Science nurses at a Christian Science Benevolent Association Sanatorium.

The single dagger (†) is used to designate those who are graduates of other nursing-training courses or have had at least two years' training and over three consecutive years of Christian Science nursing only.

The double dagger (‡) is used to designate those who have had no training course, but have had over five years' practical experience in Christian Science nursing.

The words "for mail only" in a nurse's card show that she is regularly employed in a Christian Science nursing home or is not available to respond to calls.

"The Impact of Jesus Today"

Bible students know the insight and inspiration that come from a study of Jesus' life and works. Today the Scriptures are very near and dear to millions. Jesus' work is an example in daily living the world over.

Beginning Monday, December 31, The Christian Science Monitor will present "THE IMPACT OF JESUS TODAY."

In fifteen articles, appearing every Monday, the Monitor will discuss areas of present-day living in which Jesus' works are most manifest. Each article will emphasize the direct bearing of Jesus' teaching and example on some great issue of modern times.

These articles will contain no doctrinal discussion. They will set forth clearly and simply the impact of Jesus' life and works in today's world. Many members of the editorial staff will contribute to this unusual series. Each will be an illustrated 5-column feature on page 1 of the second section.

Your gift subscriptions this holiday season will bring countless benefits to new readers. "THE IMPACT OF JESUS TODAY" makes The Christian Science Monitor a most appropriate gift for the holiday season.

A Subscriber Comments:

"I live out in the country. The mailman brings the periodicals regularly to my door. My Quarterly arrives well in advance of the time it's needed. Therefore I never miss a Bible Lesson. The Sentinel articles are always so timely and helpful. My heart cries out with joy and gratitude for all the literature."

You can have the practical benefits of the Christian Science periodicals this time-saving way. Subscribe to The Christian Science Journal, Sentinel, Quarterly, and the Monitor on the easy-to-use Convenient Payment Plan.

You get a single notice every 3 months, 6 months, or once a year, whichever you prefer. Just one renewal date for all your periodicals.

On short notice you can change your subscription quickly to a new address. You receive the literature for a convenient period after actual termination date to give you ample time to renew.

You will receive only ONE statement for The Christian Science Monitor, Sentinel, Journal, and Quarterly. You may include Heralds (French, German, Dutch, Scandinavian, Span.-Port.-Ital.) if you wish.
